

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

DANGEROUS AND UNRELIABLE WIRE
CONDITIONS IN FIRE ALARM
SIGNAL SYSTEM

The special council committee investigating the city's fire alarm signal system found startling evidences of decayed wires in the main cable conduit in Central street yesterday afternoon when taken into several manholes for the purpose of close inspection. Instances where wires have stretched as rubber and other instances of where contact is being maintained only through the insulation, showed the councilors the deplorable and dangerous condition existing.

DIRECTOR OF CHINESE TRADE AND LABOR BUREAU ADDRESSES
LOWELL ROTARY CLUB

Dr. Tehi Hsieh, the "Rosenvelt of China," managing director of the Chinese Trade and Labor Bureau of Boston, was the speaker at today's meeting of the Rotary club and he gave an exceptionally fine speech outlining the trade possibilities in China and the Far East.

Prior to the speech, and immediately after the luncheon, Pres. Dr. Herbert E. Davis called the meeting to order. Fred C. Church reported a total of $275 collected for the Boys' club during the past week.

There will be no meeting of the club next Tuesday, as the local club will be the guests of the Fitchburg club in Fitchburg on that day.

A meeting of the Orphans' day committee was held after the regular meeting and announcement was made that the outing will be held on July 17.

Several invitations were read by the president. Twelve Chinese students of the Textile school were invited to attend today's meeting, but could not attend owing to examinations.

Benjamin Fouzner, chairman of the entertainment committee, introduced the speaker of the day, Dr. Hsieh.

Before giving his prepared speech, Dr. Hsieh spoke briefly of the bandits and their un-American characteristics, and he called on the people of this country to remember, in dealing with China, that it is one of the youngest republics in the world and should be treated with confidential leniency.

Dr. Hsieh also spoke humorously of his experiences in learning the American language, and referred to it as the American "language."

Dr. Hsieh Address

Dr. Hsieh, before beginning his speech, praised the Rotary clubs for the work they are doing and foretold

TOWNS RUINED BY EARTHQUAKE

ALLAHABAD, British India, May 29.—Advices to the newspaper Pioneer from Teheran state that 1000 persons were killed by an earthquake at Turbat-i-Haidari. The earth shook over a period of several hours. Many villages are said to have been devastated.

Turbat-i-Haidari is a small Persian town in Khorassan, a north central province which forms part of the great Iranian desert plateau. The general elevation of the country is somewhat less than 2000 feet and it is cut up into many fertile valleys that alternate with barren sand wastes. The town is about 65 miles southwest of Meshed, the capital of Khorassan.

$10,000 ORDER STILL IN THE LIMELIGHT

Another chapter in the much discussed $10,000 order aimed to allow the appointment of additional patrolmen in the police department was written today when City Auditor Daniel E. Martin filed the order to the city collector with a request that he pass upon its legality and submit an opinion as to whether the order as passed by the council over the mayor's veto is binding.

On receipt of Mr. Reynolds' opinion the auditor will transmit it to the city council as a matter of information.

To date the order has been passed by the council, vetoed by the mayor, passed over the veto by the council.

Illegal by the mayor and referred to the law department. Yesterday Mayor Donovan informed the police superintendent he would approve no payrolls including the names of any new regular patrolmen.

Lowell Plans Elaborate Observance
of Memorial Day in Honor of
City's Heroic Dead

DECORATIONS AT CITY HALL AND MONUMENT SQUARE

Memorial day, most glorious of American institutions, comes tomorrow and in Lowell it will be observed with all the beautiful ceremony that annually makes it the most worth-while anniversary in a year's span.

In religious services, visitation of graves of fallen comrades, exercises in honor of surviving members of the Grand Army of the Republic and a parade of military organizations, the significance of the day will find full expression and before tomorrow's sun sinks behind hills to the westward, men's lives will be purged with a deeper sense of obligation as the realization comes that the duty of paying tribute to those of the nation's heroic dead to whom Lowell was home, has once again been fulfilled.

As usual Civil war veterans will be accorded positions of honor tomorrow.

YOUNG WOMEN TO RECEIVE DEGREE
OF BACHELOR OF TEXTILE DESIGN
AT LOCAL SCHOOL

MISS MARY NESMITH

MISS BEATRICE BOYNTON

When the Lowell Textile school, which graduated its 1922 class of more than 60 members on June 5, the degree of Bachelor of Textile Design will be conferred on two young women, Miss Mary Nesmith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Nesmith of 222 Andover street, this city, and Miss Beatrice Boynton of Pepperell, Mass.

Both young ladies claim the distinction of being among the few females to be awarded the coveted degree in the history of the Textile school.

Miss Nesmith was graduated from the Bradford academy in 1920 and matriculated at Textile in the fall of the same year and immediately her conscientious determination to succeed won the esteem and admiration of her professors and classmates, who wish her every success in her chosen career.

Miss Boynton entered Textile after successfully completing the curriculum of studies in the high school of her native town. Like her classmate, she selected design as her specialty and pursued this course in a highly satisfactory manner, and she will go forth from the institution fully prepared to make her mark in the profession she has elected to practice.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The shipping board will investigate thoroughly the offer of more than $1,000,000,000 received yesterday for the entire government merchant fleet, Chairman Lasker said today, and if the bidders back up their proposal, "there can be no doubt the board will make the award to them."

The offer was presented by John W. Slack, president of the Columbia Postal Supply Co. of Silver Spring, Md., and proposed to pay $1,000,000,000 for all ships, active and inactive, and all other property of the United States shipping board, real, personal and mixed.

An initial payment of $51,000,000, would be made on October 1, 1923 and $50,000,000 yearly thereafter until the entire sum had been paid.

LOWELL BOY MISSING
SINCE FRIDAY, MAY 18

Stanley Dyer, aged 18 years, of 144 Church street, has been missing from home since May 18 and his parents are anxious to know what has become of him. It was thought at first that he had gone to the home of relatives in Centralville, but investigation showed that he was last seen fishing in the Merrimack river in the vicinity of Front street. VISCOUNT CHAPLIN DEAD

Prominent in Politics and Sport in Britain for More Than 50 Years

LONDON, May 28.—Viscount Chaplin of St. Oswald's Blankney, prominent in politics and sport for more than 50 years, is dead. Probably his greatest claim to fame was in his ownership of Hermie, which won the Derby in 1887 at odds of 100 to 1. Chaplin, who was not made a peer until 1915, backed the horse heavily and won a handsome fortune, of which he gave his trainer $5000. He sat in the house of commons for 47 years until 1915.

TAKE TESTIMONY IN "OIL FRAUD" CASES

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 28.—Taking of testimony in the "oil fraud" case of the General Lee defendants will get under way in United States district court today. A jury was obtained yesterday.

Among the first witnesses for the government will be G. T. Lee, nephew of General Robert E. Lee, commander-in-chief of the Confederate army. Mr. Lee was brought by the government from his home near Richmond, Va. It is understood to question the claim of "General" Robert A. Lee, one of the defendants, that he is a descendant of the famous Confederate leader and of the Lees of the days of the American revolution. The government alleged in the indictment that Charles Sherwin and H. M. Schwarz, the other two defendants, held up "General" Robert A. Lee as a descendant of the historic Lee family to further their alleged fraudulent scheme.

The government in the indictment places Sherwin and Schwarz at the back of the alleged scheme, claiming that they paid Lee $12.50 weekly to obtain the use of his name.

Lee's defense is expected to be that he really thought himself a descendant of the Virginia Lees.

NO ARBITRATION YET ON WAGE DISPUTE

Arbitration on the wage dispute between the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway company and its employees, members of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees, has not started as yet because the parties have not agreed to the third arbitrator.

The company, it is said, has chosen Mr. Carleton, its general counsel, as its delegate, and the men, James H. Valley, their chosen, but have not agreed on who will be the third member. It is rumored that several local men were suggested by the company and turned down by the men. Rabbi Fleischer and Monsignor Cassidy were also turned down. It is said, and nothing further can be done until the third man is picked.

WILL PRESENT PLAYS FOR SCHOOL BENEFIT

A group of amateurs of this city, who have had considerable experience in amateur performances, under the direction of Miss Marguerite Turgeon, will present two plays at the Opera House next Sunday evening for the benefit of the proposed new parochial school for Notre Dame de Lourdes parish. The plays to be given are "Les Deux Pigeons," a two-act operetta, and "La Mademoiselle," a one-act farce. There will also be vocal and instrumental selections.

Those who will take part in the plays are: Mrs. J. Omer Smith, Misses Yvonne and Antoinette Montmarquet, Arthemise Hotin, Blanche Levesque, Marguerite Turgeon, Adrienne Smith, Cecile Morin, Berthe Levesque and Hermine Forrest.

CHILD FALLS FROM 2ND STORY BALCONY

Raymond Joseph DuPaul, aged 2 years and 6 months, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred DuPaul of 427 Market street, had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon when he fell from a second story balcony at the home of his parents. The little fellow ventured on the balcony and after climbing over the railing, fell to the cement walk below, a height of about 25 feet. The child was rushed in an automobile truck to the Lowell Corporation hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from a severe wound to his head. It is not believed that his condition is serious, but he will be kept at the hospital for a few days for observation.

JUBILEE COMMITTEE ACTIVE

The jubilee committee in charge of the jubilee celebration of Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O.M.I., met last evening and discussed plans for the event. The celebration will open with a solemn high mass at the Immaculate Conception church at 11 o'clock next Sunday, with Rev. Fr. Sullivan as celebrant. Then on Monday evening a testimonial to the popular priest will be tendered in the Memorial Auditorium. This is under the auspices of the O.M.I. cadet alumni. There will be an entertainment and speaking program.

CITY LIBRARY COLLECTION

The pupils of the French classes have collected $27 for a French collection at the Lowell city library. Most of this money has been earned by the students in afternoon work and the rest has been saved by sacrificing ice cream sodas and candy and keeping the money for this cause. The French department in the school has arranged a contest for the best designed booklet to be put in the front of books purchased by this money, and will give a suitable prize to the winner.

Notice to Contractors

The Town of Braintree, Mass., will receive bids for asphalt road work to be located on Parker avenue in Braintree, Mass.

The work is to be let under a general contract with the exception of the plumbing and the heating and ventilation which will be let under separate contracts.

Contractors estimating on this work will carefully examine the plans and specifications and submit their estimates to the town clerk, Mr. J. H. Brown, at the office of the Architect, Henry L. Goss, 325 Hildreth building, Lowell, Mass., on June 11.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the Architect, Henry L. Goss, 325 Hildreth building, Lowell, Mass.

FRED A. BASSETT,
Chairman Building Committee.

BATTERY B WILL GO TO METHUEN

Brigade mounted inspection will be held Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at the army in Methuen, of the 102nd regiment, of which Battery B of Lowell is part. This is an annual affair and every member of the regiment is expected to be present.

General Hale, Major Daly and Major Hopkins will be the inspecting officers and Colonel Redmond, Lt. Col. Scherf and Major Howe will be in command of the 102nd.

THE BROCKTON STRIKE

Additional Employees Said to Have Returned to Work This Morning

BROCKTON, May 28.—Business agents still loyal to the Boat & Shoe Workers' union and Brockton Shoe Manufacturers, claimed this morning that additional employees reported at the 7 o'clock whistle.

The Thompson Brothers Shoe Co. opened this morning with an announcement that full time production would be maintained. It is reported that over 75 per cent. of the employees returned to work.

At the M. A. Packard Co., where the strikers made their big attempt Monday morning by picketing, Financial Secretary M. A. Caffrey, of the Shoe Manufacturers' union, claimed that one of his union was back at work this morning. Foreman Moran of the M. A. Packard Co. reports that he refused five applicants for jobs this morning.

Shoe manufacturers and foremen are making an effort to line up the leaders and followers who today form the bulk of those on strike. No factory has been able to get more than the barest few of its leaders back on the job. About 30 per cent. of the finishers are reported at work.

Two Bridgewater strikers were arraigned in Brockton district court today, charged with intimidation and assault and battery. Two showworkers, one at the Bicknell Co., and the other at the Bicknell Co., of Bridgewater, claimed the two defendants assaulted them this morning when complainants attempted to return to work.

Adam Maculowicz and Frank Bulot are the defendants. Frank Cunningham and William Tunkum are the complainants. The cases went over to Saturday morning after pleas of not guilty were entered.

Make a Yukon Pack Frame for Your
Camp at the Low Cost of $1.10

BY L. L. McDONALD

Director, Department of Camping, National Council Office, Boy Scouts of America.

Wilderness campers know the utility and comfort of an easy pack for carrying heavy equipment and extra provisions. The Yukon pack frame has these advantages; and it can be made into a bed, a stretcher, a sled, or a cart. Best of all, you can make one yourself—at a cost of only $1.10.

The pack frame conforms readily to the back and distributes the pressure evenly. It keeps the load in place, in a compressed flat package, which does not rattle about or after the extra strain of side motion to throw the hiker off his balance where footing is uncertain. You can use it with shoulder straps, or tramp line, or both if desired.

In rocky, barren places or on ice or snow the unpacked frame furnishes a bed, giving padding for hips and shoulders and avoiding the necessity of carrying extra bedding. In emergency, between two poles it forms a stretcher; with poles bent under, it becomes a sled; or, with two light wheels, it makes a cart capable of carrying two packs.

Here's the way to make a Yukon pack frame: Take two pieces of tough, light board, one-half inch thick, two and a half inches wide and 18 inches long. Place them on edge, 15 inches apart, and insert braces as indicated in the accompanying sketch. Take 10 brass screw hooks and insert five of them at equal distances along each edge of the frame.

Spread over these a heavy canvas cloth, 27 by 24 1/2 inches, with seven grommet holes in each end. Cut a slit lengthwise in the cloth, and reinforce it by sewing over a patch of canvas or leather. Attach shoulder straps, two inches wide, made of leather or canvas, to the centre brace inserted through the slit.

Now remove the screw hooks and after folding the canvas over the sides of the frame and joining the edges tightly together by passing six yards of rope through the grommet holes, replace the screw hooks by inserting them through the canvas without cutting.

Your duffle bag or load is made into a roll, covered by an extra tarpaulin or canvas, and is laced on firmly by the use of cotton rope, three-eighths

FATALLY HURT IN FIGHT

Stephen Puleo Held in Connection With Death of John Bell in Boston

Fatal Blow Followed When
Puleo Found Bell Hugging
His Wife

BOSTON, May 29.—Stephen Puleo was arrested last night on a charge of manslaughter after the death of John Bell, whose skull was fractured when Puleo knocked him to the sidewalk. Puleo told the police that he heard his wife scream while she was on the piazza of their home in the Roxbury district and running out he saw Bell hugging her. Bell ran, Puleo chased him and a short distance away they came to blows. Struck behind the ear, Bell dropped to the sidewalk, striking his head, and died without regaining consciousness.

Mrs. Puleo told the police that Bell had called to inquire about the address of a friend and apparently thinking she was alone, put his arms around her.

EX-GOV. JOSEPH W. FOLK
OF MISSOURI DEAD

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Joseph W. Folk, former governor of Missouri and once a leading figure in democratic party politics, died yesterday in New York.

Information of his death was received at the law office he has maintained here for several years. He passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. James A. Webb, after having been in ill health for some months.

Mr. Folk took up the practice of his profession here soon after his retirement as chief counsel for the Interstate Commerce commission. He has taken part in several important international negotiations, for which he had been particularly fitted by his experience during the first Wilson administration as solicitor of the state department.

Several years he had been counsel for the government of Peru. About a year ago he suffered a nervous breakdown, from which he never completely recovered. He was 54 years old. Funeral services will be held Thursday at his birthplace, Brownsville, Tenn.

PROSPECTS POOR
FOR MORE SALARY

The chances of the members of the election commission to secure salary increases this year seem to be becoming more and more remote, in spite of the fact that their duties have been considerably enlarged through the enactment and operation of the Lowell listing bill.

Last night two committees of the city council, the committee on salaries and the committee on ordinances and legislation, met in conference with the city solicitor and were told by him that legally the commissioners cannot receive salary increases this year in view of the fact that their salaries for 1923 already have been established by ordinance and under a provision of Plan B charter it is definitely stated that no salary once established by ordinance, can be increased during the year for which it is current.

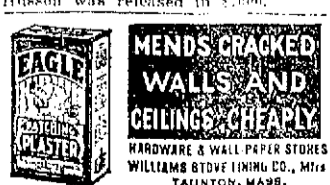

The meeting last night was presided over by Councilor Daniel Cosgrove, as chairman of the committee on salaries and although the matter was given thorough discussion no action was taken. It was decided, however, to hold another meeting tonight, which the election commissioners will be asked to attend and additional consideration will be given the question, with the contentions of the commissioners fresh in mind.

QUICK RECOVERY
OF STOLEN AUTO

About twenty minutes after it was stolen, a Ford runabout, the property of Terrence J. Riley, of 292 Fairmount street, was recovered by Motorcycle Officer Daniel Lynch, last night. The operator of the machine was on his way down Rogers street early last night and when at a point near Knapp avenue, the engine failed to function, owing to lack of gasoline. Going to a nearby filling station, about three minutes' walk, Riley returned to find that his machine had disappeared. The police were immediately notified and Motorcycle Officer Lynch was detailed to the scene. Hiding near Scattered park, he found the runabout deserted by the side of the road and still lacking gas. After filling the tank with the liquid fuel, Riley "stepped on it" and proceeded on his way.

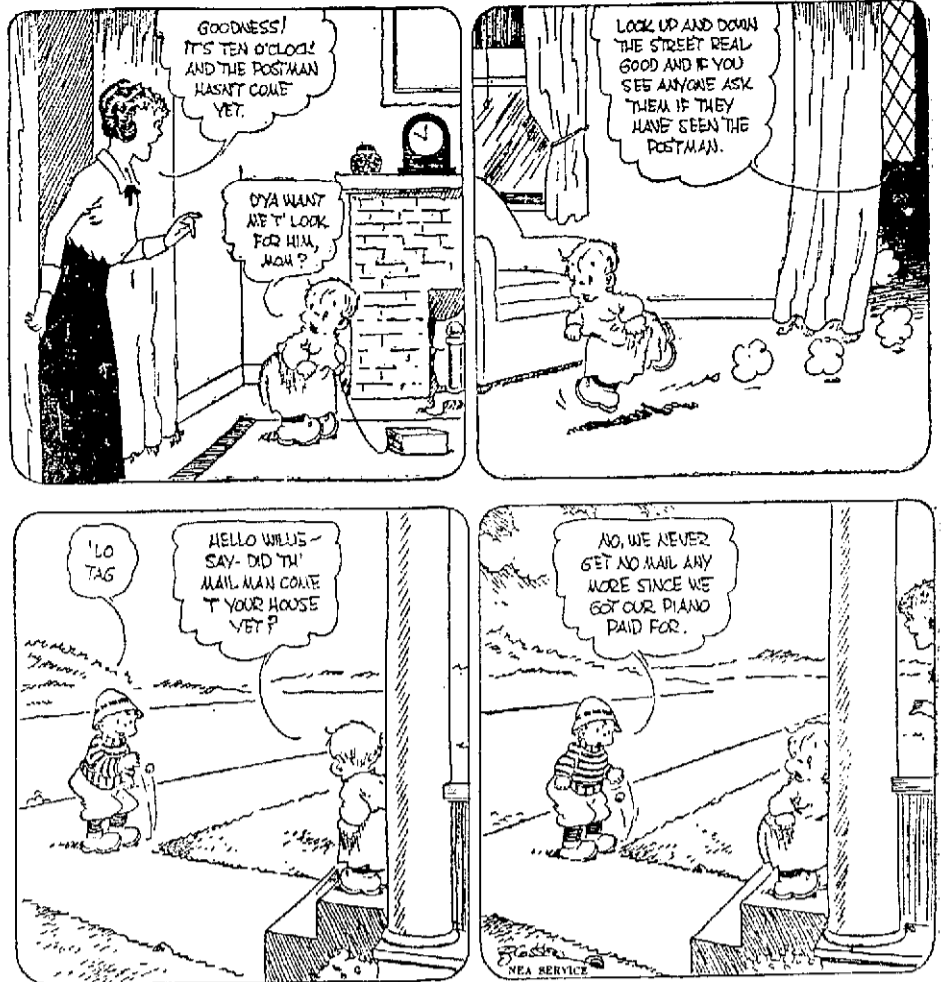

LOWELL MAN WANTED
IN W. VIRGINIA

Lieut. Bartholomew Ryan and Inspector John Walsh last night arrested Shaban J. Hussain at his home in Butterfield street, on a warrant issued from the courts of Beckley, West Virginia, charging Hussain with passing a worthless cheque in a small town near that city. It was learned that Hussain is engaged in the boot business in this city and when arrested, he strenuously denied his implication in the worthless cheque affair. He is alleged to have told the police that he would not go willingly to West Virginia to stand trial. Late in the night, Hussain was released in $1,000.

FIRE DAMAGES HOUSE
IN W. CHELMSFORD

The old George Spaulding home, situated in West Chelmsford, near the Westford line was threatened with destruction by fire last evening. Fortunately the blaze was discovered in time and the good work of the firemen of both Westford and Chelmsford as well as the assistance of men attracted to the scene by the alarm, saved the old landmark from being razed to the ground.

The fire was discovered shortly after 10 o'clock by Mrs. Peter Greene, who with her husband and family occupy the building, which they own. Just as she was retiring she smelled smoke and looking out the window saw flames licking the side of the ell in the rear of the house. An alarm was quickly sounded and fire companies from Westford and Chelmsford responded. The firemen were handicapped by the lack of water, but chemical lines were used effectively. While the firemen were coping with

FOLIAGE IS CAUSE
OF INTERFERENCE

Did you ever think of the trees about your home, as interfering with your radio reception?

That's a fact, according to a writer in a recent issue of Popular Radio. And that's why radio reception in summer is so much more difficult than in winter.

"The increased foliage of the trees," says the writer, "brings about an increased absorption of radio energy, and this permits less of it to reach the actual antenna. Each tree acts virtually as an antenna, and the district becomes too crowded for good radio work."

Besides this, he gives two other reasons why radio work in summer is more difficult than in winter. These are:

- "1. The brighter solar light in summer ionizes the atmosphere and causes a 'dampening' of radio energy."
 - "2. There is more interference due to static in summer than in winter."
- So far as rain and winds are concerned, however, this writer says, these give little interference, if any. Collection of water on the insulators may cause leakage, but this is the fault of the insulators. And the wind may cause the antenna to sway, making it more difficult to tune in. But that is all trouble the wind and rain might give.

DAUGHTER OF MRS. VUEGHER
NORTH BALTIMORE, OHIO

AT no age does a young girl need greater care than from the time she reaches the age of twelve years until womanhood is established. Many a woman has suffered years of misery because as a girl she has been allowed to sit around with wet feet, lift heavy articles, overwork and overstudy. In all such cases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be given as it is especially adapted for such conditions. It is a root and herb medicine, contains nothing harmful and may be taken in perfect safety by any school girl.

This Mother's Letter and Daughter's Photograph of Interest to Every American Mother

NORTH BALTIMORE, OHIO.—"My fourteen-year-old daughter took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound every month for weakness. One of her classmates in school who had the same trouble told her about it. She said: 'My mother makes me take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So that day she came home and told me and we got some the next day. She took three bottles of it and never has to stay home from school now from sickness. She is strong and well. I am sure if any mother writes to me I will be glad to answer her letter."—Mrs. VUEGHER, Box 61, North Baltimore, Ohio.

Another Mother Tells What It Did for Her Daughter
DANDRIDGE, TENN.—"My daughter was not able to go to school for almost a year because of pains in her side and other troubles girls often have. I was just studying one day what I could give her that would help her when I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided I would get it for her. Since taking it she has gained to normal weight and goes to school all the time."—Mrs. GEORGE HIXENEY, Dandridge, Tenn.

NEXT GAME
K. of C. vs. Broadways, Thursday.

In the first Twilight league game of the season to go the entire seven innings distance, the South Ends and Centralville, who were tied at 3 to 3, were broken by a 6 to 4 victory over the Y.M.C.I. in the fourth inning. The game was a real battle, with the South Ends leading 6 to 4 at the end of the fourth inning. The Y.M.C.I. rallied in the fifth and sixth innings, but the South Ends held them off in the seventh.

Garrity in Great Form
Taking the lead in the opening stanza, the South Ends were never headed, the nine players on the team giving a most exhibition of team work and cooperation with the man in the box, Garrity, who pitched one of the best games of his career and let the heavy hitting institute men down with six bingles. The South Ends' portable slants proved unfailing in the hands of Belvidere, who caught a big out and lost to a team which last night gave every indication of superiority.

Game Features
Besides the natural rivalry among the players, the game had other features. It was the longest played contest of the season, almost two hours time being required to bring hostilities to a conclusion. Several unusual delays did not tend to increase the interest of the fans. On one occasion, for instance, the South Ends' catchers, who caught a error, were out of the game for a while. The argument was perfectly logical as the South Ends were leading 6 to 4 at the end of the fourth inning. The Y.M.C.I. had a counter-attack, but the South Ends held them off in the seventh.

BIG HOLIDAY FEATURE LOWELL FIREMEN TOO BENNY LEONARD MEETS PINKIE MITCHELL

One of the biggest holiday attractions ever planned in North Chelmsford is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock when the newly-organized Silesia Mills team of that town meets the strong Millstreams of Chelmsford in the new Silesia-Mills ball park and the management expects to take care of a large crowd. Special cars will be available to and from Lowell and many local fans are counting on including the Silesia-Mills game on their holiday program.

LOWELL TEXTILE WILL MEET VERMONT TEAM

Lowell Textile will entertain the representatives of St. Michael's college of Burlington, Vt., at the Moody street grounds, Memorial day afternoon, in one of the closing games of the toughest schedule ever outlined for the Textiles. The visitors have made an excellent record this season, winning against some capable nines, at home and away, but regardless of their record, the home players are confident that with Ray Farwell back on the mound, they will be able to take the measure of their opponents. The game will be called at 3 p.m.

HORSE RACES AT GOLDEN COVE PARK

Secretary Arnold Ryan of the Lowell Jockey Club and veterinary society announces that 35 horses, one of the classiest field ever looked for the Golden Cove race track will compete Memorial day afternoon, in five class matines. The ladies' race with a purse of $200 has five fair entries from Concord, N. H., and two from Lowell. This event is expected to be worth a trip to the park, as it is known that there is considerable rivalry between the Concord and Lowell drivers.

YESTERDAY BIG DAY FOR "UNDER DOGS" IN MAJOR LEAGUES

UNDER DOG'S DAY IN THE MAJORS

All Leaders Except Yankees, Who Did Not Play, Receive Setbacks

Giants With Bentley, the $65,000 Star Pitching, Beaten by Dodgers, 8 to 7

NEW YORK, May 29.—It was the under dog's day, a day of reversals, in the major leagues yesterday for the teams that played, all the leaders except the New York Yankees receiving setbacks and the Yankees and five other American league clubs did not play.

The high stepping Philadelphia Athletics, after taking two out of three from the New York Yankees, were prey to the Boston Red Sox, 8 to 6, and the lowly Philadelphia Quakers, perhaps the weakest team in either league, won double header in either league, won double header from 4 and 11 to 2.

Other reversals included that given Pittsburgh by Chicago, 5 to 4, in 11 innings, keeping the Pirates from taking advantage of an infrequent opportunity offered by the Giants. St. Louis jumped at its chance, beating Cincinnati 5 to 4 in 10 innings, making up ground lost to Pittsburgh last week.

The hammer and tongs battle between Brooklyn and New York, which the Robins won 3 to 7, was also a topsy-turvy affair, the Giants having shown previously the most nearly impregnable front in either league. It was the fourth defeat in six starts for Jack Bentley, the $65,000 star purchased from Baltimore.

SQUIRES' CAREER ONE OF MOST UNIQUE IN RING

Many old records have been hung up in the ring. Some bordered on the sensational while others really were pathetic.

Perhaps one of the most unique was Joe Squires', Graham, the "man who couldn't be knocked out," probably got in the way of more punches than any man who ever stepped inside the ring.

But Joe couldn't be stopped. With him it wasn't a question of winning but whether he could last through the bout without getting a kayo wallop. Joe surely was in a class by himself. And there wasn't ever anything hanging around to dispute his position, either.

But how about old Bill Squires, the back Australian "heavyweight"? Unlike Graham, the "descent" didn't enter the ring to be a punchline. Nevertheless, Bill's regime was a queer one. He won all his first 10 bouts, save one, by a knockout.

Then he grew too ambitious and came over to this country in search of fame. And he got it without hunting very long.

July 4, 1907, he met Tommy Burns for the world's championship. One good punch and all his laurels. It came in the first round. And it proved sufficient to send Squires into Dreamland.

After that the Antipodian was in nine battles. In all but one of them he was knocked out. His lone victory was over Jim Roche, who took the count in the fourth round at Dublin.

Burns twice kayoed Squires in 1908. Whereupon Bill decided to beat it back home.

In his last four bouts Bill Lang, another Australian, always put him to sleep. The final match went only five rounds.

Thus did Bill Squires, after starting out like a world beater with nine "slumber" punches in his first 10 battles, do a complete reverse by being floored for the count in all but one of his last 10 bouts.

Surely Bill Squires' ring career ranks as one of the oddest in pugilism.

PRINCETON FAVORED TO WIN "BIG THREE" TITLE

NEW YORK, May 29. (By the Associated Press.)—With the Intercollegiate diamond season drawing to a close, Princeton's powerful and undefeated nine looms as an outstanding contender for the 1923 eastern college crown.

Remembering two Harvard scamps among its 19 straight victories so far, the Tiger team is a favorite to take Yale's measure in their annual series and capture in addition, the "big three" title.

Only two other eastern colleges have rivaled Princeton's record. Boston College, which ran its string of consecutive victories to 31 by defeating Vermont last Saturday, will settle the question of supremacy with the Tigers when the two teams clash at Princeton on June 2. Holy Cross, another formidable New England entry has won 18 out of 19 starts, losing its only game to Princeton in a battle to 2 straight, several weeks ago at Tiger town.

Due to the effective twinning of Owen Carroll, pitching star who has received several flattering offers from big league clubs, Holy Cross has hung up an unusually brilliant record, scoring more shutouts than any other eastern college line. Yale and Harvard both have been whitewashed by the Worcester collegians.

Princeton has eight more games on its schedule, including three with Yale, the first of which will be played at New Haven, next Saturday.

The Tigers also have an international contest on their list playing the University of Toronto at Princeton on June 13.

Georgetown compiled one of the best records in the east last season, capturing 20 straight games, but Boston College already has passed this mark and Princeton, barring an upset in the next week or so, also promised to eclipse this mark.

NEW CHAMPION Mrs. Luther Kennett of Coronado Country club sprung a surprise when she defeated Miss Breen Kavanagh, California woman golf champion, in the southern California championship matches.

ABBOT WORSTED AND PITCHBURG Davidson and Sullivan will be in the points in the ABBOT WORSTED baseball nine against Pitchburg in the opening game of the season at Grandville Memorial day afternoon. Justin and O'Brien will serve as the Pitchburg batsmen. Both teams are represented by the usual array of baseball stars, who have made reputations in league and organized and semi-professional baseball and a fast, interesting contest is assured.

Thus did Bill Squires, after starting out like a world beater with nine "slumber" punches in his first 10 battles, do a complete reverse by being floored for the count in all but one of his last 10 bouts.

Big 500-Mile Automobile Race

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 29.—Twenty-two cars having proved their right to compete in the annual 500 mile automobile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway tomorrow, were being torn down and rebuilt for the last time today. Four other cars, the remainder of the entries, were scheduled to take their speed trials late today. The foreign contingent with the exception of one machine, has met every trial and the pre-race fans are considering the cars seriously as contenders for the leading positions. They have not displayed the speed of the American creations, but they have given evidence of sturdiness and endurance. Three German cars and four French machines to date have qualified to start. Another French car will be hurled over the bricks this afternoon in an effort to average 80 miles an hour or better for 10 miles—the required speed for participation.

Belgium's Plan to Make Germany Pay

PARIS, May 29.—Belgium's plan to make Germany pay, according to Le Matin, suggests the formation in the Reich of monopolies in such commodities as alcohol, sugar and tobacco, together with the exploitation of the railroads and state property. The proposed monopolies would be managed by international syndicates on which the allies would be well represented. The newspaper says Premier Theunis estimates that this plan would furnish a minimum of 2,400,000,000 gold marks annually. It would have the advantage of making Germany's debt a commercial one and would mean that she would find ways of meeting it within her own borders, thus making it unnecessary for the French and Belgians to relinquish their pledges.

SKULL CRUSHED BY BLOW OF AXE

Birmingham, Alabama, Police

Trying to Solve Murder of Charley Graffeo

Axe Assaults Continue—19

Persons Wounded—17 Others Injured

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 29.—Birmingham police are trying to solve the murder of Charley Graffeo, the latest victim of a series of axe assaults, which during the past 12 months has taken the lives of 19 persons and resulted in injuries to 17 others.

Graffeo was found dead at his store in an outlying residential section last night, with his skull crushed by the blow of an axe, and his throat slashed. A blood splattered axe stood behind the door. Its handle was shortened, so that it could be carried beneath a coat, police believe.

The dead man's pockets had been rifled and the store robbed. The assailant evidently had entered under the pretense of making a purchase, the police said.

The attack upon Graffeo was the 25th assault during the 42 month period, the first being on the night of November 28, 1913. It was the fourth case of its kind this year.

Alleged perpetrators have been sent to jail in only three of the long list of cases. Police claim to have solved three other cases, declaring the wounded victims refused to prosecute or cooperate in obtaining convictions. Police declare they have divided the axe cases into two classifications. In the first category men and cafe owners have been the victims, and in the other group the interestingly of cases is said to have been involved.

Theories regarding the crimes have covered a large range. While the attacks in some cases apparently have had robbery as the motive, in some the motive has been advanced that they were the result of quarrels between Negroes who had stolen property and men who were acting as "fence" in disposing of the property.

Lowell Rotary Club

Continued a wonderful race in the future, the American race after the different nationalities had been melted down by contact with the older Americans and the older Americans had gained a little from those who have come into this country from the older nations of Europe and Asia. He also told of the navy and merchant-marine of the United States as it compared to other countries of the world, and said that the sea of tomorrow will be controlled by America.

"America," he said, "is most favored of nations, possessing a frontage on the sea of tomorrow, facing the lands of the dawn of day. She is more favored than the countries of Europe for they are bound down by old traditions, while they are deciding to do a thing, the United States, and all America, will have that thing done and will be looking forward to new worlds to conquer. The United States is blessed beyond most nations with a variety of wealth of raw materials, but it is not sufficient unto itself, as some people would like to make you believe. From all lands are drawn products, used as food and in manufacture. Fully a billion dollars a year is paid for raw materials from across the Pacific. There is hardly an individual in household in this wide country that does not use daily something containing ingredients not obtainable or grown in the United States.

"The peoples of the Orient," he continued, "desire to make available for themselves and to the markets of the world the material resources of their lands, and the products of their fields and forests, and they desire to buy from other countries the tools and machinery which will allow them to make these resources available at a price not prohibitive. They must sell America the things required or that may be used in order to pay for the machinery, equipment and supplies urgently needed in the transportation and material resource development of Asia. For Asia holds the huge reserves of the earth's raw materials as well as the largest production potentialities of the world's tillable areas."

"America, especially the United States, needs expanding markets for the lands of the dawn of day, and she needs the raw supplies that these lands can furnish her. The situation affords a wonderful opportunity for development that will be mutually advantageous. The incentive urging Americans to a strong, vigorous effort is founded on a sound business basis, the desire to profit by creating new wealth in the world, thus opening larger markets for the products of American industry," Dr. Hsieh, in presenting the advantages of China, never spoke as a suppliant for charity, but as a prophet, as to trade conditions showed that the east had plenty to offer in trade, and that it would profit the United States, and especially the mill cities and machinery manufacturing localities in New England to bring forth the old proposition of barter for which they used to be famous and go into the east if they wished to open up business possibilities that would be of great advantage to them and would also benefit the countries of the east, especially China. "But," he continued, "if the motive force were that of making markets alone, success could not be achieved. The incentive must be tempered with a purpose to serve by making two blades of grass grow where only one grew before and by an appreciation of the fact that that which will best serve the peoples across the sea of tomorrow will most benefit America. In the lands bordering the sea of tomorrow lie tremendous opportunities for helpful service as well as huge profits. The call is for the best in America. Men with vision, courage, and love in their hearts, dominated by a will to do, must come to the front and play a strenuous part in the commerce of the Pacific and the development of Asia. To do less would prove them falling short of the New England spirit of the pioneer."

Resources of China "The greatest storehouse of unused resources and potential wealth is in the countries bordering on the Pacific. The greatest of all is China."

Continuing Dr. Hsieh said, "The foreign trade of the countries of the Far East today totals about $5,000,000,000 a year. With adequate transportation facilities and material resource development assistance rendered to the Orient, the foreign trade will be increased to about 12 billion within a comparatively short time, and America's share in this new commerce will be directly proportional to the extent of her investments and participation in the development of Asia."

Dr. Hsieh then gave a thorough discussion of the conditions in China today, discounting much of the reported fighting and the seriousness of the situation, and claimed that there is no real trouble in the interior of China. One thing which he claimed was greatly in her favor was the fact that she has no religious differences, in religion she is one, and this binds her more closely together than any other thing could.

"The economic world," he predicted, "is to be a world power for co-operative peace domination. The plundering warlords find it necessary to destroy, or to have destroyed, by the defenders, ten billion dollars' worth of wealth for every billion that they are able to take and carry off. It is easily seen that it is cheaper to dominate through economic peaceful domination than by means of out-beating the beast."

"And the races of mankind have not yet discovered that they get more by work than they can possibly get by taking it from others, that in every nation, or of an individual or of a people, of a people, to get little of something that their neighbors possess, they will find themselves compelled to destroy much. Disarmament and the problems of the Far East cannot and will not be solved by a discussion of the rights of races to the territory in which they have lived for thousands of years or of the ethics or lack of ethics of international aggression and plunder, but by the economic demonstration that war for plunder does not pay."

In conclusion he said: "The only protection lies in one of two things. The education of those susceptible of education to the economic fact that they will have greater wealth and escape degeneracy and death by becoming producers instead of attempting to live by plunder; or, another disarmament conference of the Orient to be arranged with leadership of Uncle Sam for the abolishing of the causes of would-be war in Manchuria."

Ye Right Bland Blend

Even as in the making of choice sherry, tobacco leaf must be matured and blended before it attains blandness and true virtue.

MAYOR BLOCKS OPERATION OF ORDER ADDING $10,000 TO THE POLICE DEPT. APPROPRIATION

Raises Question of Illegality and Informs Police Chief He Will Approve No Payrolls Containing Names of New Patrolmen—Instructs Auditor to Present No Such Payrolls to Him for Consideration

Mayor John J. Donovan yesterday detailed the $10,000 additional police order passed by the council over his veto last Friday night when he raised the question of its legality and informed the superintendent of police he will not approve any payrolls containing the names of new patrolmen and recommended to him that he conduct his department within the original appropriation voted by the council, unless directed differently by the courts.

At the same time the mayor advised the city auditor of his action relative to the order and directed him not to present for approval any payrolls or items of expense against the $10,000 appropriation.

In his letter to Supt. Thomas R. Atkinson, the mayor declares the order as passed by the council over his veto is illegal and in contravention to the provisions of chapter 44 of the general laws relating to supplemental budgets and the powers of the city council to increase the total of a budget without the approval of the mayor.

When the annual budget was under consideration by the mayor he disapproved of additional money for the police department for more patrolmen and claims no item of expense can be added to any appropriation which heretofore has been considered and passed upon.

The letter sent to the superintendent this afternoon follows:

May 28, 1923.

Thomas R. Atkinson, Superintendent of Police, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir:

Permit me to call your attention to the order recently passed by the city council appropriating the sum of $10,000 for your department, and for the purpose, as claimed, to permit the mayor of ten new patrolmen to the present personnel of the department.

Ordinarily, I am satisfied to have made effective any legislative order of the city council even when passed over my veto. This order, however, in my opinion, is illegal and in contravention to the provisions of chapter 44 of the general laws relating to supplemental budgets and the powers of the city council to increase the total of a budget without the approval of the mayor. As you know, I have disapproved of this additional appropriation and so advise the city council at the time of the making of the annual budget of your department. I am still opposed to such an expenditure.

Therefore, I would advise for your guidance at this time that I will not approve any payroll of your department containing additional names of new patrolmen or any increased expenditures from this additional appropriation. I would, furthermore, recommend that you conduct the department within the original appropriation voted; unless directed differently to do so by the courts.

I cannot assent to permitting a precedent to be established by approval of the city council of an illegal and irregular order of the city council, relative to its power to initiate supplementary budgets for departmental purposes.

JOHN J. DONOVAN, Mayor.

May 28, 1923.

Daniel E. Martin, City Auditor, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir: I have this day notified the superintendent of police that I will not approve any payrolls of the police department containing the names of new patrolmen, or any expenditures from an order finally passed by the city council May 25, appropriating the sum of ten thousand dollars as a supplementary appropriation for this department.

In my opinion this order is illegal and in opposition to the provisions of chapter 44 of the general laws relating to supplemental budgets and the powers of the city council to increase any item on a total of a budget without the approval of the mayor.

Inasmuch as this approval has been withheld by me, I am now directing you as city auditor not to present for my approval any payrolls or items of expense against said order of appropriation as passed by the city council, unless directed to do so by the courts.

Signed, JOHN J. DONOVAN, Mayor.

NIGHT OF TERROR IN DORTMUND

ESSEN, May 28. (By the Associated Press.)—Disorders in the Ruhr on account of strikes and communist activities appear to be centered in Dortmund where the inhabitants passed a night of terror and the communists today were still striving for the upper hand.

Workers' guards took up positions in the streets and searched all passers-by. Many complained that money and valuables had been taken. Numerous fights grew out of the searching and a large number of persons were hurt, but were quickly carried off by their friends.

The terroristic methods at Dortmund were preceded by bitter fighting between the communists and blue police at a nearby mine where communist emissaries tried to induce the pump men to leave so that the mine would be flooded.

Several automobile loads of police came up and attacked the communist forces and drove them away after fighting in which the police had two men killed and eleven wounded, one of the latter fatally. The communists left two dead on the field and carried many wounded away with them.

They hope the explorer will choose a clear day for his feat, thus enabling him to dispose of his compass and take his position by astronomical observations.

AD CLUB MEMBERS VISIT TELEPHONE EXCHANGE

The weekly luncheon and business meeting of the Lowell Advertising club was held yesterday in the Girls' City club rooms.

Except for a few announcements, no business was transacted today as the club intended to make a tour of investigation of the telephone company's exchange building on Appleton street, and time was limited.

During the luncheon, several piano selections were played by Miss Daisy Willis of the Song Shop, and Charles J. Keyes entertained with popular selections. Immediately after the dinner, President E. J. Conroy announced that E. A. Lavin, of the Eastern Sales company of Boston, would be the speaker at next week's meeting, and that Paul Hollister, of Barton, Purinton & Osborne, of Boston, would be the speaker on June 11. Then the members marched out of the building and up to the telephone exchange.

At the exchange they were met by C. J. Leathers, the local manager and host of the afternoon, who had arranged for guides and laid out a route to be followed. No time was lost with formalities, the 60 members of the club simply broke up into four groups of 15 each and started through the plant.

The guides furnished by the plant were picked men for the job, each one was fully capable of answering any question concerning the workings of the telephone and the intricacies of the cables and each one had plenty of opportunity to tell all that he knew before he completed the trip through the plant for the members of the Ad club were out to learn the why and wherefore of the telephone exchange, wherever of the telephone exchange.

The trip started down in the cellar in the cable pit and battery rooms and from there the groups went to the terminal room, where the cables are split up to lead into the switchboards, to the trouble operator's desk, to the generators, the relays, the amplifiers, and then upstairs to the main exchange. Here each group split up into several smaller ones and gathered around an experienced operator who showed them what happens when they lift the receiver of their phone and ask for a number. The toll operators and the toll boards also received due attention, special stress being laid on questions as to how the operators keep track of the time spent on each message. The operators here, as the men in the other rooms had been, were capable of explaining every little thing that the club members desired to know, and when they were through with their trip through the plant they agreed unanimously that it was the most interesting and the most educational trip they had ever been on, and they united in thanking Mr. Leathers for giving them the opportunity to see the inside workings of the telephone exchange.

LOWELL ROTARY CLUB

Dr. Teh Hsieh, the "Roosevelt" of China, managing director of the Chinese Trade and Labor Bureau of Boston, was the speaker at today's meeting of the Rotary club and he gave an exceptionally fine speech outlining the trade possibilities in China and the Far East.

Prior to the speech and immediately after the luncheon, Pres. Dr. Herbert E. Davis called the meeting to order. Fred C. Church reported a total of $275 collected for the Boys' club during the past week.

There will be no meeting of the club next Tuesday, as the local club will be the guests of the Fitchburg club in Fitchburg on that day.

A meeting of the "Orphans' day" committee was held after the regular meeting and announcement was made that the outing will be held on July 17.

Several invitations were read by the president. "Twelve Chinese and twenty of the Textile school were included to attend today's meeting, but could not attend owing to examinations.

Benjamin Ponzner, chairman of the entertainment committee, introduced the speaker of the day, Dr. Hsieh.

Before giving his prepared speech, Dr. Hsieh spoke briefly of the bandits and their un-American characteristics, and he called on the people of this country to remember, in dealing with China, that it is one of the youngest republics in the world and should be treated with considerable leniency.

Dr. Hsieh also spoke humorously of his experiences in learning the American language, and referred to it as the American "slangage."

TOWNS RUINED BY EARTHQUAKE

ALLAHABAD, British India, May 29.—Advices to the newspaper Pioneer from Tehran state that 1000 persons were killed by an earthquake at Turbat-I-Haidari. The earth shocks covered a period of several hours. Many villages are said to have been devastated.

Turbat-I-Haidari is a small Persian town in Khorassan, a north central province which forms part of the great Iranian desert plateau. The general elevation of the country is somewhat less than 2000 feet and it is cut up into many fertile valleys that alternate with barren sand wastes. The town is about 65 miles southwest of Meshed, the capital of Khorassan.

BILLION DOLLAR OFFER FOR MERCHANT FLEET

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The shipping board will investigate thoroughly the offer of more than $1,000,000,000 received yesterday for the entire government merchant fleet. Chairman Lasker said today, and if the bidders back up their proposal, "there can be no doubt the board will make the award to them."

The offer was presented by John W. Slack, president of the Columbia Postal Supply Co. of Silver Creek, New York. It proposed to pay $1,051,000,000 for all ships, active and inactive, and all other property of the United States shipping board, real, personal and mixed.

An initial payment of $51,000,000, would be made on October 1, 1923 and $50,000,000 monthly thereafter until the entire sum had been paid.

The proposal as made public by the shipping board continued:

"We agree to operate present lines with at least as good a service as that rendered by the United States shipping board, during the entire life of the agreement. The government to have the right to repossess all the property at any time there is a default in payment of any part of the principal sum or any installment of interest. Interest to be paid in full on the unpaid balance quarterly at the same time as quarterly payments are made on the principal."

"We are prepared to furnish a bond of one million dollars, guaranteeing that we will sign a contract if awarded same and to discuss any or all other details of such a contract."

Chairman Lasker emphasized that the total sum offered was nearly three times the inventory value of the fleet based on present world market prices.

Lowell Plans Elaborate Observance
of Memorial Day in Honor of
City's Heroic Dead

DECORATIONS AT CITY HALL AND MONUMENT SQUARE

Memorial day, most glorious of American institutions, comes tomorrow and in Lowell it will be observed with all the beautiful ceremony that annually makes it the most worth-while anniversary in a year's span.

In religious services, visitation of graves of fallen comrades, exercises in honor of surviving members of the Grand Army of the Republic and a parade of military organizations, the significance of the day will find full expression and before tomorrow's sun sinks behind hills to the westward, men's lives will be purged with a deeper sense of obligation as the realization comes that the duty of paying tribute to those of the nation's heroic dead to whom Lowell was home, has once again been fulfilled.

As usual Civil war veterans will be accorded positions of honor tomorrow, flanked by sturdier comrades-in-arms of Spanish-American and World war days. While other cities have equal opportunities for serious and reverent reflection on Memorial day, for each has its heroes and heroines born in the days of battle, Lowell is particularly linked with the stirring events of '61, for in the very heart of the city, at Monument

OF BACHELOR OF TEXTILE DESIGN
AT LOCAL SCHOOL

MISS MARY NESMITH

MISS BEATRICE BOYNTON

When the Lowell Textile school, which concluded regular sessions last Friday, graduates its 1923 class of more than 60 members on June 5, the degree of Bachelor of Textile Design will be conferred on two young women, Miss Mary Nesmith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Nesmith of 229 Andover street, this city, and Miss Beatrice Boynton of Peppercorn, Mass. Both young ladies claim the distinction of being among the few females to be awarded the coveted degree in the history of the Textile school.

Miss Nesmith was graduated from Bradford academy in 1920 and matriculated at Textile in the fall of the same year and immediately her conscientious determination to succeed won the esteem and admiration of her professors and classmates, who wish her every success in her chosen career. Miss Boynton entered Textile after successfully completing the curriculum of studies in the high school of her native town. Like her classmate, she selected design as her specialty and pursued this course in a highly satisfactory manner, and she will go forth from the institution fully prepared to make her mark in the profession she has elected to practice.

NOT TO RESIGN, SAYS
ATTY. GEN. DAUGHERTY

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Attorney General Daugherty, returning to Washington after a period of rest in this city, today attended his first cabinet meeting in several weeks and denied reports which again have been circulated that he soon would resign.

"I have heard nothing and know nothing of reports published in this that I am to resign," said Mr. Daugherty. "I feel better and I am better than since I was taken out last winter. I am ready to get back on the job actively. In fact, I have been doing considerable work right along."

"The frequency with which these reports that I am to resign spring up in certain quarters is certainly strange."

A White House spokesman said the president regarded Mr. Daugherty's denial as "certainly official." The fact that the attorney general is a guest at the White House, it was added, would indicate definitely the continuation of most cordial relations between the president and Mr. Daugherty who, it was added, appeared to be in much better health.

VISCOUNT CHAPLIN DEAD

Prominent in Politics and Sport in Britain for More Than 50 Years

LONDON, May 28.—Viscount Chaplin of St. Oswald's Blankney, prominent in politics and sport for more than 50 years, is dead. Probably his greatest claim to fame was in his ownership of Hermie, which won the Derby in 1867 at odds of 100 to 1. Chaplin, who was not made a peer until 1916, backed the horse heavily and won a handsome fortune, which he gave his trainer $5000. He sat in the house of commons for 47 years until 1916.

TAKE TESTIMONY IN "OIL FRAUD" CASES

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 28.—Taking of testimony in the "oil fraud" case of the General Lee defendants will get under way in United States district court today. A jury was obtained yesterday.

Among the first witnesses for the government will be G. T. Lee, nephew of General Robert E. Lee, commander-in-chief of the Confederate army. Mr. Lee was brought by the government from his home near Richmond, Va. It is understood that question of the claim of "General" Robert E. Lee, one of the defendants, that he is a descendant of the famous Confederate leader and of the Lees of the days of the American revolution. The government alleged in the indictment that Charles Sherwin and H. M. Schwarz, the other two defendants, held up "General" Robert E. Lee as a descendant of the historic Lee family to further their alleged fraudulent schemes. The government in the indictment places Sherwin and Schwarz at the back of the alleged schemes, claiming that they paid Lee $1250 weekly to obtain the use of his name. Lee's defense is expected to be that he really thought himself a descendant of the Virginia Lees.

THE BROCKTON STRIKE

Additional Employees Said to Have Returned to Work This Morning

BROCKTON, May 28.—Business agents still loyal to the Boot & Shoe Workers' union and Brockton Shoe Manufacturers, claimed this morning that additional employees reported at the 7 o'clock whistle.

The Thompson Brothers Shoe Co., opened this morning with an announcement that full time production would be maintained. It is reported that over 75 per cent. of the employees returned to work.

Shoe manufacturers and foremen are making an effort to line up the strikers and finishers who today form the bulk of those on strike. No factory has been able to get more than the barest few of its workers back on the job. About 30 per cent. of the finishers are reported at work.

Two Bridgewater strikers were arraigned in Brockton district court today, charged with intimidation and assault and battery. Two shoeworkers, one at the J. Q. White Co., and the other at the Bakerfield Co., of Bridgewater, claimed the two strikers assaulted them this morning when complainants attempted to return to work.

Adam Maculowicz and Frank Bulef are the defendants. Frank Cunningham and William Tumkam are the complainants. The cases went over to Saturday morning after pleas of not guilty were entered.

NOTORIOUS YEGG IS CAPTURED

Ray D. Sherrill, Said to Have Been Brains of Robbery at Denver Held

Escaped While Serving 40 Years for Train Robbery at Leavenworth

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., May 28.—Ray D. Sherrill, notorious bandit, and an escaped convict who was apprehended at McAlester, Okla., yesterday, was declared today by officials of the federal prison here to have been the brains of the bandit gang which staged the daring robbery a few months ago of a federal reserve bank truck in front of the government mint at Denver.

Sherrill, according to prison officials, confessed when arrested by a posse following a train robbery in 1918, that he and fellow gangsters had planned for the robbery of the Denver mint. His statements at the time were regarded by officials as "too fanciful to be believable."

Sherrill escaped June 23, 1921. He was serving 40 years for train robbery.

CASES IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

In the cross suit of Eureka G. Wilner and Claude J. Harney, which was tried at the civil session of the superior court yesterday morning, the jury returned a verdict for the defendant in both cases late yesterday afternoon. This suit was the result of an automobile accident, which occurred in Tewksbury in February, 1922.

The case of Nora Holmes and Thos. Lambert, an action of tort, which went to trial yesterday afternoon, was settled out of court last evening and at the opening of the court this morning the case was dismissed. This case was also the result of an automobile accident, which occurred in Tewksbury in May, 1922, when an auto collided with a wagon.

The next case to go to trial was that of Joseph Dalphond vs. Fred Lavigne, an action of contract. The plaintiff alleges that last year he sold his farm in Pelham, N. H., to the defendant, but that the latter failed to carry out his part of the contract, and he is now seeking damages.

DETROIT PLAY BROWNS

DETROIT, May 28.—The tag end of a semi-disastrous home stand for the Detroit Tigers opened today with St. Louis starting a four-game series here. Out of 16 games played on the home grounds, the Tigers have won but six. To make their home stand, even partially successful, the Browns must take at least six of the remaining seven games. St. Louis has been one team the Tigers could beat with a semblance of regularity this season, the Browns having lost six out

$10,000 ORDER STILL IN THE LIMELIGHT

Another chapter in the much discussed $10,000 order aimed to dislodge the appointment of additional patrolmen in the police department was written today when City Auditor Daniel E. Martin forwarded the order to the city solicitor with a request that he pass upon its legality and submit an opinion as to whether the order as passed by the council over the mayor's veto is binding.

On receipt of Mr. Reynolds' opinion the auditor will transmit it to the city council as a matter of information.

The date the order has been passed by the council, voted by the mayor, passed over the veto by the council, declared illegal by the mayor and referred to the law department. Yesterday Mayor Donovan informed the police superintendent he would approve no payrolls including the names of any new regular patrolmen.

FOR WORKERS POLICE FORCE IN ESSEN

ESSEN, May 21. (By the Associated Press.)—The burgomaster of Essen began negotiations today with the communists and representatives of the workers for the formation of a workers' police force to assist the firemen under an arrangement similar to that reached at Geisenkirchen.

The communists committee of control is apparently gaining the upper hand here, having little difficulty in forcing the shopkeepers to keep prices down to the mark indicated by the committee.

The French authorities at Dusseldorf issued an official denial today of widespread reports that the French had supplied the firemen and workers of Bochum with firearms.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

H. E. KENT'S THEATRE
"I heard," a farce comedy containing considerable truth, in the feature act at H. E. Kent's theatre this week. It is by Edwin Burke and is the story of a husband who tries to break his wife of the habit of gossiping, especially of exaggerating what she is told in conversation to someone else. A lesson to her, who will in turn tell it to his wife. The friend tells the story, making it a little worse than it was previously, then both she and the wife tell it to others and keep enlarging it. By the time it gets back to the husband it is distorted beyond all semblance of the truth and it gives him the opportunity to lecture her on her own fault. Paul Barker takes the part of the husband and his lecture on gossip is a classic. It contains nothing but the truth concerning the harm gossip does, and it is delivered in a wonderful style. His wife and friend immediately start to correct the error they have made, but friend husband has hard work getting back on friendly terms with her. Assisting Paul Barker are Helen Valley, Nina Saville and Frank W. Taylor.

"Senator" Ford from Michigan is a monologist who is funny before he opens his mouth and he has a great line to hand out when he begins to talk. His "cracks" at affairs in Washington and of the countries over the sea contain more than a semblance of the truth and his jokes concerning the automobile are entirely original.

Myrtle Pitt and George Lloyd present a little singing and dancing sketch entitled "At Home in Sonland." The songs are well sung and their specialty song made an immediate hit.

Ralph C. Bevan and Beatrice Flint, the former star, present "A Slight Interruption," a number full of laughter, from beginning to end and the pair had to answer several encores before the audience was satisfied.

Nell O'Connell entertains with songs, dances and harp solos that are such of the highest quality. She is exceptionally pretty and possesses a voice that wins her a place in the hearts of the audience. Her encore number, in which she sings directly to the members of the orchestra, filled the theatre with laughter at the expense of the blushing musicians.

The Joe St. Onge trio, the closing number on the program, had the crowd gasping for breath with their remarkable stunts and bicycle act that was entirely original.

"Getting a Polish," a travel picture, topics of the day. Accon's Fable and the Pathe News weekly completed a good show.

THE STERLING THEATRE
An all-star cast, very pretty Persian scenes and gorgeous costumes go to make up the feature play at the Sterling theatre for the first three days of the week, one of the best offerings shown in this city. The play is "The World in 18 Days" by Guy de Maupassant, and with Guy Bates Post in the leading role it proves to be a veritable amusement second to none in Alford.

The play tells the story of a young man who is studying under one of the most able men of Paris. He falls in love with the latter's daughter and when the relations of the young couple are discovered by the father, he becomes angry and drives the young man away from his study room. Omar, who is being impersonated by Post, joins him in the tenting world and becomes quite an expert in that line. The love between the young couple is kept up despite the fact that the father is so angry. The story of Persia as one of his brides, and of course everything ends well, but not until the lovers have gone through a series of exciting experiences. The love scenes in this play are particularly pleasing.

The second number on the program is "The Flaming Hour," a love story of unusual interest. In this play Frank is at his best, and he is being very well accompanied by Helen Ferguson. This play has to do with the story of a young man, who is a production manager in a large power factory, and who incidentally falls in love with the owner's daughter. He is somewhat hot-tempered, however, and settles most of his quarrels with his employees with his fists. Unable to control his temper, he enters into several arguments with his employer with the result that he is discharged. The young girl follows her lover and a wedding is effected. Through some misunderstanding the young bride leaves home and returns to her father. From that time on the young man wanders, finally finds back in the power factory as an employee, and through his efforts a plot is brought to light. The couple are finally reunited and a happy life follows.

There is also a pleasing comedy as well as interesting current events and enjoyable sayings in "Fun From The Press." The audience will be exceptionally good and well adapted to the play that is shown.

RIALTO THEATRE

How it took poverty to bring about a woman's love for a man she has hated is amply demonstrated at the Rialto theatre the first part of the week in the play "The World in 18 Days" which depicts William Farnum and Ellen Cassidy in leading roles.

The climax comes when the woman turns towards the husband she has hated, only after he breaks his connection with the money world and returns to his old life of poverty. The husband, who has been a man who has betrayed his trust. She hated him through riches and wealth and when she faced with poverty and poverty turns to him again like a mother and aids him to regain the position which he once held in the social world.

In this picture which opened a two-day engagement at the Rialto yesterday afternoon, Farnum is introduced as a dock laborer, Joseph Gibbs, whose one great asset is loyalty to his masters. Gibbs rises in the money world and is soon in control of the situation in Wall street. He is a mark for all the social climbers and soon finds a price to the name of Gibbs. Gibbs' marriage to her daughter to regain her social standing. The daughter, however, turns to her mother and poverty turns to suit her mother. The loveless marriage does not bring happiness to the pair and they agree to live apart until a mutual love springs up between them.

In the meantime, Gibbs' wife has become the subject for unduly advances on the part of a young man, who she has accepted an invitation to dinner. Her husband has learned everything and plans to break up the marriage. Gibbs rises in the money world and is soon in control of the situation in Wall street. He is a mark for all the social climbers and soon finds a price to the name of Gibbs. Gibbs' marriage to her daughter to regain her social standing. The daughter, however, turns to her mother and poverty turns to suit her mother. FELT BETTER AND COLOR INCREASED

Mrs. Boyden Took a Specific for Anemic Condition and Recommends It

When the cheeks are pale, the lips colorless, when the eyes lack brightness and there is a shortness of breath with a general feeling of listlessness and fatigue, the characteristic symptoms of bloodlessness, known to physicians as an anemic condition, are present. To combat them and restore health, strength, energy and color a blood builder is needed and there is a specific treatment that is highly successful in such cases.

This is the condition described by Mrs. Alice E. Boyden of La Bella avenue, West Springfield, Mass. She says: "A relative who is a physician advised me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills after I had taken other treatment without benefit. I was anemic, was pale and thin and so weak that I would have to lie down after the slightest exertion. I was subject to headaches and dizzy spells. I was also troubled with indigestion. Before I had taken the pills a week I felt better and my color had increased. In a short time I was in good health again. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to many people. I take them myself when I need a tonic and they always help me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a body-building tonic. They increase the power of the blood to carry new life and energy to every part of the system. If there is no organic trouble this is almost sure to result in benefit that the patient quickly notices in increased appetite, better digestion, sound refreshing sleep and general good health.

A booklet, "Building Up the Blood," containing full information about this treatment will be sent free on request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of price, 50 cents per box.—Adv.

New York from 1907-1910. Its spoke on "Social Welfare a Factor in International Relations."

He linked the work of the state department with that carried on by the National Conference of Social Workers.

He pointed out that in the long run the hope of world peace lies in those quiet human efforts by which people come to understand and to trust each other until they reach the point that war between them becomes unthinkable, and with this sentiment and approach and the processes of reason. Looking beyond immediate exigencies, I believe that if there is a powerful and continuous influence at work to bring humanity to the desired goal, it is to be found in the social humanitarian activities in which you are engaged.

"If America is understood abroad," he said, "it is because of the gratitude there for the work done by the American Relief agencies. It is well to recognize that they have done what has happily been called a grand swell of popular good-will toward this country."

Monday, May 21, was "Home Day."

An interesting feature of the day's program was the lawn fete and band concert on the White House grounds open to delegates at 5 p. m. President Wilson, standing appeared on the south portico and smiled a greeting, there was a round of applause. Later the president came down to the garden and shook hands with the delegates.

Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, who was chairman of the local Washington committee on arrangements, attended the general session on Friday and although not on the program made informal remarks.

Each day of the session of the conference was devoted entirely to a single subject. Following is the order of the days on which the various subjects were considered with the chairman of the committees in charge:

Thursday, "Health," Dr. Livingston Farrand, president Cornell university; Friday, "Industry," Dr. John A. Farrow, Catholic university, Washington; Saturday, "Law and Government," Prof. Roscoe Pound, dean Harvard law school; Sunday, "The Church," Mrs. John M. Glenn, former president of the National Conference of Social Work; Monday, "Education," Porter Charles J. Haselings, commissioner of health, Toronto, Canada; Dr. W. S. Harkin, secretary of the state board of health of North Carolina; Rev. John A. Ryan, of the National Catholic Welfare Council, Washington; Dr. Frank J. Goodnow, president of Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore; Miss Annie Noylford, director of social service in the tuberculosis hospital of Paris; Dean Roscoe Pound of Harvard law school, Cambridge; Abbe Jean Viollet of Paris, editor of L'Assistance Sociale, and head of the French Family Dwelling association; Miss Julia C. Lathrop, of Rockville, Ill., recently selected by the League of Women Voters as one of the twelve most famous women in the United States; Robert W. Kelso, executive secretary of the Council of Social Agencies, Boston; Dr. Runcie Sand of Paris, secretary general of the League of Red Cross societies; Dr. Alice Salomon, of Berlin, director of the Berlin School of Social Work and Mrs. Henry Moskowitz of New York, executive secretary of the reconstruction commission of New York state.

Among the most interesting papers presented on the subject of health was a study of the delinquent ex-serviceman made by Dr. W. F. Lorenz, director Wisconsin Psychiatric Institute, Madison, and a member of the board of advisors to the national rehabilitation committee of the American Legion. "More than 20,000 former service men were in penal institutions of the United States last year," said Dr. Lorenz. "The subject under discussion was 'Mental Attitude and Intelligence as Social Health Factors.' A study of 294 former service men examined in prison showed the majority to be mentally abnormal and a high percentage were feebleminded, with less intelligence than normal nine-year-old children.

On Sunday scores of conference ofdeers and speakers delivered addresses in the churches of different denominations throughout the city. The general session theme, "Personal Religion and Progress Through Social Work." Four noon luncheon conferences were held in hotels where the clergy, the social worker and the laymen discussed the relationship between the church and social agencies.

Abbe Viollet was an army chaplain during the war and was wounded in service. He is the founder of the Family Dwellings Association of Paris and the moving spirit in the Workman's Family Welfare association. At the general session on Sunday evening he urged "The Rebuilding of Family Altars."

Dr. Alice Salomon, dean of women social workers in Germany, and president of the German National Conference of Social Schools, of which there are 80 in her country, read a paper on "Social Case Work as it is Developed in Europe."

Robert W. Kelso, executive secretary, Boston Council of Social Agencies, speaking on "The Passing of the Institutional Period in Care and Custody," said: "The pendulum has swung from the abstract to the concrete. We are thinking today in the terms of the individual. It is but a few years now when every orphanage in the land will be more than a temporary shelter and its inmates will be placed in foster homes."

The National Conference of Social Work will meet in the spring of 1924 in Toronto, Canada.

Beauty and Health

THE baby who is puny, weak and sickly cannot be beautiful. Beauty in children is almost entirely dependent on health and vigor, and health depends on correct feeding more than anything else. Mother's milk is the best food for babies, of course, but if you must use artificial feeding, start your baby on Eagle Brand—used with success by about a million mothers in the past sixty-five years. Eagle Brand is exceedingly digestible and the safest baby food you can buy.

Mrs. Alice Bowers says:

"My little boy, Loyd, was brought up on Eagle Brand Milk. He drank it till he was over a year old, and is now three. I like Eagle Brand."

300,000 ON STRIKE

Mass Meeting of Striking Miners to Consider Offer to End Strike

GELENSKIRCHEN, May 29.—(By the Associated Press) A mass meeting of 10,000 striking miners in this district has been called for this afternoon to consider an offer from the industrialists to end the strike. It was indicated that the settlement proposals would be overwhelmingly rejected, the strikers determined to hold out for realization of their full demands. It was estimated by a union official today that 300,000 miners are now on strike in the Ruhr district of a total of 500,000. In addition there are 100,000 repairmen and helpers striking, as well as 70,000 metal workers, making the total of strikers more than a half million.

The Gelelenkirchen district is still the scene of much disturbance. Miners have been making two rounds of a number of miles to see that nobody works. In one instance a number of substitute workers were compelled to march in the ranks of the visitors through a communist center where the onlookers jeered the non-striking and bombarded them with missiles of various sorts.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR THE RELEASE OF CAPTIVES

TIEN-TSIN, May 29.—(By the Associated Press) Despatches from Tientsin today strengthened the impression of an improved atmosphere in the negotiations for the release of the 14 foreigners held in the bandit strongholds on Paozuku mountain. Chinese officials evidently are making a more sincere effort to placate the bandits, and the bandits have been quick to acknowledge this. A few parleys with the bandits, the gentry plucked property as a guarantee that an agreement would be observed. The deputy to the Tientsin of Shantung province sent in counter proposals, which received prompt attention. When the bandits' secretary reached the relief camp at Tsaochow, the Tientsin deputy instantly reassured them regarding their safety, and emphasized that it was not a question of loss of face. "I have lost a lot of face," explained the official. "So have you, and so has China."

What the deputy told the bandits in the conference that followed which lasted hours, evidently was satisfactory since the bandits decided not to return immediately to Paozuku immediately as they had intended but to remain overnight, leaving yesterday to report back to their chiefs.

SHRINERS SET UP COURT TO TRY OFFENDERS

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Shriners who run afoul of the law in Washington during Shrine week will have the option of trial before a special "court" of Masons, provided they are arrested on charges involving only misdemeanors.

Nineteen "justices" will compose the "court," with I. R. Holt, former United States commissioner for the District of Columbia, as "chief justice." There will be 50 "judge advocates" or special prosecutors, and the clerical force will number 25, under William S. Adkins, clerk of the criminal division of the District of Columbia supreme court.

The "court" is organized, with the approval of the governing authorities of the District of Columbia and the police in making arrests of Shriners on misdemeanor charges will turn their prisoners over to this "court" which will sit in the national guard armory.

At the district attorney's office, it was stated today, however, that where serious cases of disorder occurred, those accused of participation would be brought to trial in the regular courts.

INVITED TO TAKE PART IN ACRE DEDICATION

James J. Bruin, member of the school committee and the Broadway Social and Athletic club in a talk to the students of the high school assembled in the Auditorium this afternoon for the Memorial day exercises, invited the members of the regiment and the band to participate in the Acre dedication exercises to be held Sunday.

The regiment will meet at the drill shed at 2 o'clock and will proceed to the intersection of Broadway and School street, where Chief Marshal George Boland of the Broadway club will take charge of the regiment. An invitation has been extended to all of the military organizations in the city, stated the speaker, and it is hoped that there will be a large turnout of high school cadets. Over one-third of the men who enlisted from Lowell and who died in the World war came from the Acre section, asserted the speaker, and over one-half of those who died in action, from this city were residents of the same district. It is to pay tribute to these men that I ask your presence at the exercises," declared Mr. Bruin.

AZORES THREATENED WITH FAMINE

NEW YORK, May 29.—The Azores Islands are threatened with famine due to the failure of the Tidewater Trading Co. to deliver $10,000 worth of corn, according to the Portuguese Consul General George De S. Duarte, who appeared at the district attorney's office today to lodge a complaint. He stated that the corn ordered two months ago had never been shipped.

Acting Dist. Atty. Pecora began an investigation to find out why the company, said to have received full payments had not shipped the corn.

A letter purporting to have been written by officials of the company on May 21 stated that the corn had been purchased in the northwest, and was being brought east by the water route, but had been indefinitely delayed by unfortunate weather conditions.

The situation in the island of Fayal in particular was said by Duarte to be extremely serious.

BOSTON, May 29.—Stephen Puleo was arrested last night on a charge of manslaughter after the death of John Bell, whose skull was fractured when Puleo knocked him to the sidewalk. EX-GOV. JOSEPH W. FOLK
OF MISSOURI DEAD

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Joseph W. Folk, former governor of Missouri and once a leading figure in democratic party politics, died yesterday in New York.

Information of his death was received at the law office he has maintained here for several years. He passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. James A. Webb, after having been in ill health for some months. Mr. Folk took up the practice of his profession here soon after his retirement as chief counsel for the Interstate Commerce commission. He has taken part in several important international litigations, for which he has been particularly fitted by his experience during the first Wilson administration as solicitor of the state department.

For several years he had been counsel for the government of Peru. About a year ago he suffered a nervous breakdown, from which he never completely recovered. He was 63 years old. Funeral services will be held Thursday at his birthplace, Brownsville, Tenn.

PROSPECTS POOR
FOR MORE SALARY

The chances of the members of the election commission to secure salary increases this year seem to be becoming more and more remote, in spite of the fact that their duties have been considerably enlarged through the enactment and operation of the Lowell listing bill.

Last night two committees of the city council, the committee on salaries and the committee on ordinances and legislation, met in conference with the city solicitor and were told by him that legally the commissioners cannot receive salary increases this year in view of the fact that their salaries for 1923 already have been established by ordinance and under a provision of Plan B charter it is definitely stated that no salary, once established by ordinance, can be increased during the year for which it is current.

The meeting last night was presided over by Councilman Daniel Cosgrove, as chairman of the committee on salaries and although the matter was given thorough discussion no action was taken. It was decided, however, to hold another meeting tonight, which the election commissioners will be asked to attend and additional consideration will be given the question, with the contentions of the commissioners fresh in mind.

OF STOLEN AUTO

About twenty minutes after it was stolen, a Ford runabout, the property of Terrence J. Riley, of 282 Fairmount street, was recovered by Motorcycle Officer Daniel Lynch, last night. The operator of the machine was on his way down Rogers street early last night and when at a point near Knapp avenue, the engine failed to function, owing to lack of gasoline. Going to a nearby filling station, about three miles north, Riley returned to find that his machine had disappeared. The police were immediately notified and Motorcycle Officer Lynch was detailed to the scene. Riding past Spaulding park, he found the runabout deserted by the side of the road and still lacking gas. After filling the tank with the liquid fuel, Riley "stepped on it" and proceeded on his way.

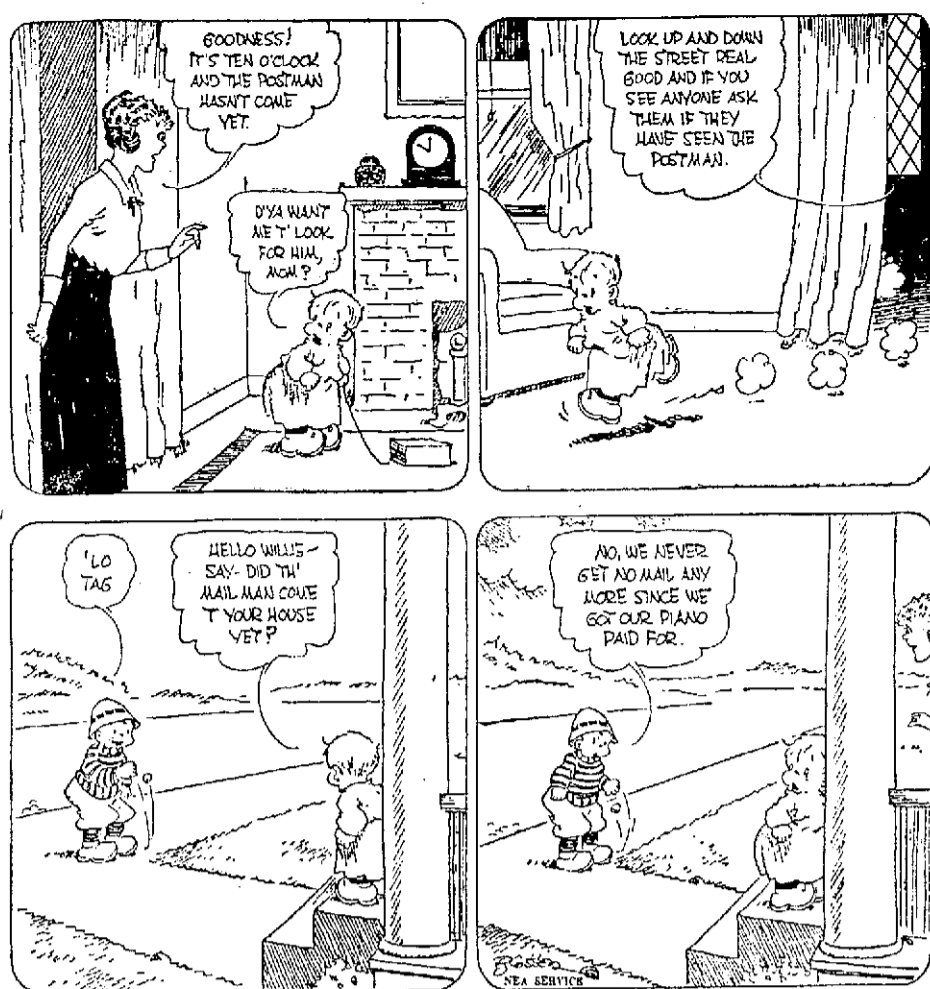

LOWELL MAN WANTED
IN W. VIRGINIA

Lieut. Bartholomew Ryan and Inspector John Walsh last night arrested Shaban J. Hussan at his home in Butterfield street, on a warrant issued from the courts of Beckley, West Virginia, charging Hussan with passing a worthless cheque in a small town near that city. It was learned that Hussan is engaged in the fruit business in this city and when arrested, he strenuously denied his implication in the worthless cheque affair. He is alleged to have told the police that he would not go willingly to West Virginia to stand trial. Late in the night, Hussan was released in $1000.

FIRE DAMAGES HOUSE
IN W. CHELMSFORD

The old George Spaulding home, situated in West Chelmsford, near the Westford line, was threatened with destruction by fire last evening. Fortunately the blaze was discovered in time and the good work of the firemen of both Westford and Chelmsford as well as the assistance of men attracted to the scene by the alarm, saved the old landmark from being razed to the ground.

The fire was discovered shortly after 10 o'clock by Mrs. Peter Greene, who with her husband and family occupy the building, which they own. Just as she was retiring she smelled smoke and looking out the window saw flames licking the side of the old building. An alarm was quickly sounded and fire companies from Westford and Chelmsford responded. The firemen were handicapped by the lack of water, but chemical lines were used effectively. While the firemen were coping with

OF INTERFERENCE

Did you ever think of the trees about your home, as interfering with your radio reception? That's a fact, according to a writer in a recent issue of Popular Radio. And that's why radio reception in summer is so much more difficult than in winter.

"The increased foliage of the trees," says the writer, "brings about an increased absorption of radio energy, and this permits less of it to reach the actual antenna. Each tree acts virtually as an antenna, and the district becomes too crowded for good radio work."

Besides this, he gives two other reasons why radio work in summer

is more difficult than in winter. These are:

- "1. The brighter solar light in summer ionizes the atmosphere and causes a 'dampening' of radio energy."
- "2. There is more interference due to static in summer than in winter."

So far as rain and winds are concerned, however, this writer says, these give little interference, if any. Collection of water on the insulators may cause leakage, but this is the fault of the insulators. And the wind may cause the antenna to sway, making it more difficult to tune in. But that is all trouble the wind and rain might give.

These Girls too Ill
to Attend School

DAUGHTER OF MRS. VLEGHER
NORTH BALTIMORE, OHIO

At no age does a young girl need greater care than from the time she reaches the age of twelve years until womanhood is established. Many a woman has suffered years of misery because as a girl she has been allowed to sit around with wet feet, lift heavy articles, overwork and overstudy. In all such cases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be given as it is especially adapted for such conditions. It is a root and herb medicine, contains nothing harmful and may be taken in perfect safety by any school girl.

This Mother's Letter and Daughter's Photograph of Interest to Every American Mother

NORTH BALTIMORE, OHIO.—"My fourteen-year-old daughter took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound every month for weakness. One of her classmates in school who had the same trouble told her about it. She said: 'My mother makes me take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So that day she came home and told me and we got some the next day. She took three bottles of it and never has to stay home from school now from sickness. She is strong and well. I am sure if any mother writes to me I will be glad to answer her letter."—Mrs. VLEGHER, Box 61, North Baltimore, Ohio.

Another Mother Tells What It Did for Her Daughter

DANDRIDGE, TENN.—"My daughter was not able to go to school for almost a year because of pains in her side and other troubles girls often have. I was just standing one day what I could give her that would help her when I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided I would get it for her. Since taking it she has gained to normal weight and goes to school all the time."—Mrs. GEORGE HINCHY, Dandridge, Tenn.

NEXT GAME
K. of C. vs. Broadways, Thursday.

In the first Twilight League game of the season to go the entire seven inning distance, the snappy South Ends team, with "Hank" Garrity on the mound, last evening pitched a 6 to 4 defeat on the Y.M.C.I. cohorts, and went into second place in the league standing. The game proved one of the most interesting and exciting of the present year and was witnessed by several thousand fans, mostly equally distributed as to parity in rooting for the contending teams.

Garrity In Great Form
Taking the lead in the opening stanza, the South Ends were never headed, the nine players on the team giving a neat exhibition of team work and on operation with the man in the box. Garrity, who pitched one of the best games of his career and let the heavy a managerial capacity. It was some minutes before the situation was remedied, and after threatening to forfeit the game, a satisfactory adjustment was made and the battle continued.

Y. M. C. I. Used Three Pitchers
"Big Boy" Morais, who has made two auspicious starts for the Y. M. C. I. club, was again elected to inaugurate the mound festivities last evening. He was not his customary reliable self, however, and succumbed to the home batting attack of the South Ends in the very first inning before a man was out. "Eddie" Cawley injected himself in the box but even he could not stem the tide of a South End victory. He was relieved by "Hank" Conlon, who proved the most effective of the trio and pitched a mighty splendid game during his regime.

For the South Ends, "Hank" Garrity, possessing a varied assortment of clubs, was mixed with a fast straight one, worked wonderfully for the win.

Tyler's Hit Scores Two
The game opened with "Dixie" Davis taking a walk to first. He went to second when "Shorty" Deo plunked a ball on an Oliver which went for a hit. Fall pointed the corks when he accepted a free ticket. George Tyler came up at the crucial moment, "with three on and nobody out," and crashed a bitter single between first and second which scored Davis and Deo. Tyler went to second on the throw to the plate, and walked at that station until Klutka singled over the bag. Olson struck out, but Belvidere whipped a Texas leaguer to left and on a perfect throw by McFalls, Tyler was snipped at the plate.

A fourth run was added for good measure in the third. Klutka got a hit when he made first on a dropped third strike, then stole second and scored on Olson's clutch to center. The final runs for the South Ends shot across in the fourth when two markers concluded their scoring activities. A hit-by-batted ball, Deo's second single and Fall's two-bagger accounted for the duel.

Pretty Double Play
Y.M.C.I. got busy in the fourth. Liston singled and Cawley two-baggered to deep left center. Desmond made it three on when his punt was thrown, and then Cawley hit safely to the infield and McFalls sent up a pretty sacrifice fly which scored the second run. Further scoring was prevented when Falls caught O'Ray's fly and by a perfect throw to Riley, retired Desmond at the plate for a pretty double play.

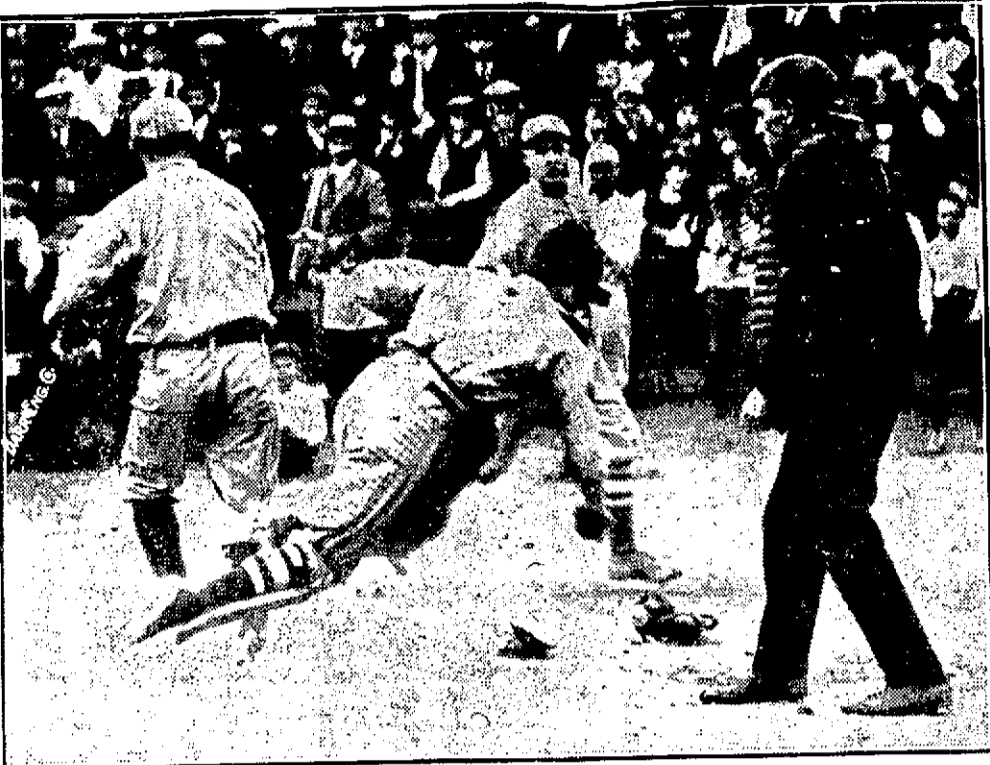

In the following stanza, Lynch cracked out a two-bagger, stole second and scored on a couple of infield outs. It was getting dark but the players continued to play the game moving and the Y.M.C.I. went into the final inning to emerge with one more tally. Send Riley, who had caught a sweet fly, pitched and caught a passed ball, scoring on Liston's sacrifice fly. The score:

Game of Features
Besides the natural rivalry among the players, the game had other features. It was the longest pitched game of the season, almost two hours, time being required to bring hostility to a conclusion. Several unusual early delays did not tend to increase the interest of the fans. On one occasion, for instance, the South End rooters objected to "Hank" Garrity, pitcher on the third base coaching line. The argument was perfectly logical as Liston was coaching in a forbidden area. The Y.M.C.I. men, however, refused to leave the line, requesting the umpire to clear the South End bench of spectators and balls. Riley, who had been in the game, others not connected with the team, in

BIG HOLIDAY FEATURE AT NO. CHELMSFORD

One of the biggest holiday attractions ever planned in North Chelmsford is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock when the newly-organized Silesia Mills team of that town meets the strong Millstreams of Chelms in what gives every evidence of being a fast game. The contest is to be staged in the new Silesia ball park and the management expects to take care of a large crowd. Special cars will be available to and from Lowell and many local fans are counting on including the Silesia-Millstreams game on their holiday program.

The Millstream outfit has been playing a consistent brand of winning ball in the State Twilight League and promises to give Manager Gilmore's Silesians a setback. The No. 2 Chelms team, however, is strong in every department and intends to open its season with a win.

LOWELL TEXTILE WILL MEET VERMONT TEAM

Lowell Textile will entertain the representatives of St. Michael's college of Burlington, Vt., at the Moody street grounds, Memorial day afternoon, in one of the closing games of the toughest schedule ever outlined for the Textiles. The visitors have made an excellent record this season, winning against some capable nines at home and away, but regardless of their record, the home players are confident that with Ray Farwell back on the mound, they will be able to take the measure of their opponents. The game will be called at 3.30.

Saturday afternoon, Lowell will meet the Fitchburg Normal nine, in the last game of the season. Coach Bob Ganley has been drilling his charges hard for the past two weeks in an effort to strengthen the infield play of the club, and the results of his painstaking work are beginning to show in the polished work of the players around the sacks. The coach and players are confident, although not to a degree that will harm their chances of a victory, that the school will take the measure of Fitchburg and St. Michael's.

Textile has had a season of ups and downs in college baseball this season. When the team is going good, it is on a par with the best, but when the club is in a slump, the players look anything but like a college organization.

LOWELL FIREMEN TOO MUCH FOR REVERE

Platoon one of the Lowell fire department, emulating the example set by the players of the second platoon, who defeated the strong Salem fire dept. team two weeks ago, turned the tables on the Revere fire fighters on the South End grounds yesterday afternoon, winning the free-bitting contest by a score of 11 to 5. Henry Quinn on the slab for the home club was master of ceremonies throughout the uneven struggle. Showing his opponents only eight scored hits and fanning 10.

Quinn eliminated the visitors without any trouble in the first and second innings, but his rival McCarthy upholding the Revere and of the argument, was in hot water from the start. Massed clotting in the first inning netted the home smoke eaters four runs and a lead, which they never lost. The Lowell runs came in clusters, as a result of the bombardment, which netted 13 hits, including several of the extra base variety.

The tandem of the Lowell batting order contributed the major part of the rallies, which accounted for the 11 rallies. Quinn and McKay leading in the onslaught. Harding and Lucas, the former with two homers, led in the Revere hitting. The summary:

BENNY LEONARD MEETS PINKIE MITCHELL

CHICAGO, May 25.—Benny Leonard of New York, the world's lightweight boxing champion, and Pinkie Mitchell of Milwaukee, Wis., titleholder in the junior welterweight class, will meet in a 10-round match tonight.

Chicago society women are sponsoring the contest and the proceeds will go to charity. It is indicated that the gate receipts will total $35,000 to $40,000.

It will be Leonard's first bout since last September and while he has trained conscientiously, experts here are unimpressed with his condition and form. Mitchell has fought himself into condition.

The men will meet at catchweights, although it is indicated both will scale under 140 pounds at 3 o'clock. Leonard says he will enter the ring at 135 pounds and Mitchell will be within a pound of that weight.

Questions
ONE—If a fielder muffs a foul fly and the batsman is finally retired, is the fielder who made the muffed ball charged with an error or does the fact that the batsman is retired remove it?
TWO—Catcher in attempting to retire runner trying to steal second, throws wild, the runner reaching third on the play. How is it scored?
THREE—If a thrown ball to get a runner at the plate is wide of its mark, the ball striking the wire netting, same being the regulation distance from the plate, and remains in the meshes of the screen, how does it affect the advancement of the runners?
FOUR—A catcher drops a third strike ball, permits the runner to reach first, the third strike being a perfect pitch, is the pitcher credited with an error?
FIVE—If home and visiting team captains are unable to agree on ground rules governing overflood crowd, how is such a dispute settled?
Answers
ONE—Fielder is charged with error on muffed ball, but not on foul fly regardless of whether or not batsman is retired.
TWO—Runner is credited with a stolen base and catcher charged with an error for the wild throw that enabled runner to advance an extra base.
THREE—If ball remains in screen that is regulation distance, it is considered same as if ball went into the stands. All runners are entitled to advance two bases.
FOUR—Pitcher credited with strikeout. Catcher charged with error. In what promises to be a fast game, the teams will compete for a loving cup. The contest is scheduled to start at 3.30 at Bunting park, Lowell fans can get to the park by taking the South Lowell or a Wigglesworth street cars. The All-Stars have assembled the pick of the maver players in this city to meet the highly touted visitors, who have defeated some of the best in the state this season.

What is the distinction between dropping and replacing a ball? Is it permissible to drop a ball when the clubs state it should be replaced, and vice versa?
There is a decided distinction between dropping and replacing a ball. When the rules of the course require a ball to be replaced, it should be done by placing the ball carefully in the exact spot it occupied before being lifted or otherwise disturbed. If it was lifted for some reason, a marker should have been placed designating the exact spot. It is directly contrary to the rules to drop a ball when it falls for a reason, and equally wrong to replace a ball that should be dropped.
A considerable amount of dirt is to be used in making a hole for a ball. The side of the accumulation of dirt holding on the fairway. Player's second shot cannot be the fairway. Do the rules give the player the right to lift and drop the ball without penalty? Should the ball be dropped in the rough or on the fairway?
Player has a right to lift the ball and drop same without penalty, the dirt being considered part of the course. The player is entitled to drop the ball on the fairway not nearer the hole and as near as possible to where it lay.
What is the penalty if your caddy carelessly throws down your bag of clubs for some reason, and in so doing moves your opponent's ball while it is at rest?
The rule covering this point states that in match play such an act on the part of your caddy loses you the hole, but in medal play no penalty is incurred, your opponent replacing the ball where it lay prior to the act of carelessness on the part of the caddy.

YESTERDAY BIG DAY FOR "UNDER DOGS" IN MAJOR LEAGUES

UNDER DOG'S DAY IN THE MAJORS

All Leaders Except Yankees, Who Did Not Play, Receive Setbacks

Giants With Bentley, the $65,000 Star Pitching, Beaten by Dodgers, 8 to 7

NEW YORK, May 28.—It was the under dog's day, a day of reversals, in the major leagues yesterday for the teams that played, all the leaders except the New York Yankees receiving setbacks and the Yankees and five other American league clubs did not play.

The high stepping Philadelphia Athletics, after taking two out of three from the New York Yankees, were prey to the Boston Red Sox, 8 to 6, and the lowly Philadelphia Quakers, perhaps the weakest team in either league, won a double header from the ambitious Boston Braves, 6 to 4 and 11 to 2.

Other reversals included that given Pittsburgh by Chicago, 5 to 4, in 11 innings, keeping the Pirates from taking advantage of an infrequent opportunity offered by the Giants. St. Louis jumped at its chance, beating Cincinnati 5 to 4 in 10 innings, making up ground lost to Pittsburgh last week.

The hammer and tongs battle between Brooklyn and New York, which the Robins won 8 to 7, was also a top-heavy affair. The Giants having shown previously the most nearly impenetrable front in either league, it was the fourth defeat in six starts for Jack Bentley, the $65,000 star purchased from Baltimore.

SQUIRES' CAREER ONE OF MOST UNIQUE IN RING

Many odd records have been hung up in the ring. Some bordered on the sensational while others really were pathetic.

Perhaps one of the most unique was Joe Squires', a former "bum" who couldn't be knocked out, probably got in the way of more punches than any man who ever stepped inside the ropes.

But Joe couldn't be stopped. With him it wasn't a question of winning but whether he could last through the bout without getting a save waiter. Joe surely was in a class by himself. And there wasn't ever anybody hanging around to dispute his position.

But how about old Bill Squires, the lanky Australian heavyweight? Unlike Squire, the "demon" didn't enter the ring to be a punchline. He was a real fighter, a real winner.

He won all his first 10 bouts, save one, by a knockout. Then he grew too ambitious and came over to this country in search of fame. And he got it without hunting very long.

July 4, 1917, he met Tommy Burns for the world's championship. One good punch was all Burns needed. It came in the first round. And it proved sufficient to send Squires into Dreamland.

After that the Antipodian was in nine battles in all but one of them he was knocked out. His last victory was over Jim Roche, who took the count in the fourth round at Baltimo. Burns twice knocked Squires in 1918. Whereupon Bill decided to beat it back home.

In his last four bouts Bill Lang, another Australian, always put him to sleep. The final match went only five rounds.

Thus did Bill Squires, after starting out like a world beater, with nine "slumber" punches in his first 10 battles, do a complete reverse by being floored for the count in all but one of his last 10 bouts.

Surely Bill Squires' ring career ranks as one of the oddest in pugilism.

PRINCETON FAVORED TO WIN "BIG THREE" TITLE

NEW YORK, May 29. (By the Associated Press.)—With the intercollegiate diamond season drawing to a close, Princeton's powerful and undefeated nine looms as an outstanding contender for the 1923 eastern college crown.

Numbering two Harvard sculps among its 19 straight victories so far, the tiger team is a favorite to take Yale's measure in their annual series and capture in addition, the "Big Three" title.

Only two other eastern colleges have rivaled Princeton's record. Boston college, which ran its string of consecutive victories to 21 by defeating Vassar last Saturday, will settle the question of supremacy with the tigers when the two teams clash at Princeton on June 7. Holy Cross, another formidable New England entry has won 18 out of 19 starts, losing its only game to Princeton in a hectic 1 to 0 struggle, several weeks ago at Tipton.

Due to the effective twisting of Owen Carroll, pitching star who has received several dattering offers from big league clubs, Holy Cross has hung up an unusually brilliant record, scoring more shutouts than any other eastern college nine. Yale and Harvard both have been whitewashed by the Worcester college.

Princeton has eight more games on its schedule, including three with Yale, the first of which will be played at New Haven, next Saturday.

The tigers also have an international contest on their list playing the University of Toronto at Princeton on June 13.

Georgetown closed one of the best records in the east last season, capturing 20 straight games, but Princeton already has passed this mark and Princeton, having an upset in the next week or so, also promised to eclipse this mark.

NEW CHAMPION Mrs. Luther Kennett of Coronado Country Club spring a surprise when she defeated Miss Rose Kavanagh, California woman golf champion, in the southern California championship matches.

Four other cars, the remainder of the entries, were scheduled to take their speed trials late today. The foreign contingent with the exception of one machine, has met every trial and the pre-race fans are considering the cars seriously as contenders for the leading positions. They have not displayed the speed of the American creations, but they have given evidence of sturdiness and endurance. Three German cars and four French machines to date have qualified to start. Another French car will be hurled over the bricks this afternoon in an effort to average 80 miles an hour or better for 10 miles—the required speed for participation.

Belgium's Plan to Make Germany Pay

PARIS, May 29.—Belgium's plan to make Germany pay, according to Le Matin, suggests the formation in the Reich of monopolies in such commodities as alcohol, sugar and tobacco, together with the exploitation of the railroads and state property. The proposed monopolies would be managed by international syndicates on which the allies would be well represented. The newspaper says Premier Theunis estimates that this plan would furnish a minimum of 2,400,000,000 gold marks annually. It would have the advantage of making Germany's debt a commercial one and would mean that she would find ways of meeting it within her own borders, thus making it unnecessary for the French and Belgians to relinquish their pledges.

SKULL CRUSHED BY BLOW OF AXE

Birmingham, Alabama, Police Trying to Solve Murder of Charley Graffeo

Axe Assaults Continue—19 Persons Wounded—17 Others Injured

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 29.—Birmingham police are trying to solve the murder of Charley Graffeo, the latest victim of a series of axe assaults, which during the past 42 months has taken the lives of 19 persons and resulted in injuries to 17 others.

Graffeo was found dead at his store in an outlying residential section last night, with his skull crushed by the blow of an axe, and his throat slashed. A blood-spattered axe stood behind the door. Its handle was shortened so that it could be carried beneath a coat, police believe.

The dead man's pockets had been rifled and the store robbed. The assailant evidently had entered under the pretense of making a purchase, the police said.

The attack upon Graffeo was the 25th assault during the 42 month period, the first being on the night of November 25, 1918. It was the fourth case of its kind this year.

Alleged perpetrators have been sent to jail in only three of the long list of cases. Police claim to have solved three other cases, declaring the wounded victims refused to prosecute or cooperate in obtaining convictions.

Police declare they have divided the axe cases into two classifications. In the first grocery man and cafe owners have been the victims, and in the other group the intermingling of races is said to have been involved.

Theories regarding the crimes have covered a large range. While the attacks in some cases apparently have had robbery as the motive, in some the idea has been advanced that they were the result of quarrels between Negroes who had stolen property and men who were acting as "fences" in disposing of the property.

Continued
A wonderful race in the future, the American race after the different nationalities had been melted down by contact with the older Americans and the older Americans had gained a little from those who have come into this country from the older nations of Europe and Asia. He also told of the navy and merchant-marine of the United States as it compared to other countries of the world, and said that the sea of tomorrow will be controlled by America.

"America," he said, "is most favored, being possessed of a frontage on the sea of tomorrow, facing the lands of the dawning day. She is more favored than the countries of Europe, for they are bound down by old traditions, while they are deciding to do a thing, the United States, and all America, will have that thing done and will be looking forward to new worlds to conquer. The United States is blessed beyond most nations with a variety of wealth of raw materials, but it is not sufficient unto itself, as some people would like to make you believe. From all lands are drawn products, used as food and in manufacture. Fully a billion dollars a year is paid for raw materials from across the Pacific. There is hardly an individual or household in this wide country that does not use daily something containing ingredients not obtainable or grown in the United States.

"The peoples of the Orient," he continued, "desire to make available for themselves and to the markets of the world the material resources of their lands, and the products of their fields and forests, and they desire to buy from other countries the tools and machines which will allow them to make these resources obtainable at a price not prohibitive. They must sell America the things required or that may be used in order to pay for the machinery, equipment and supplies urgently needed in the transportation and material resource development of Asia. For Asia holds the huge reserves of the earth's raw materials as well as the largest production potentialities of the world's tillable areas."

"America, especially the United States, needs expanding markets in the lands of the dawning day, and she needs the raw supplies that these lands can furnish her. The situation affords a wonderful opportunity for development that will be mutually advantageous. The incentive urging Americans to a strong, vigorous effort is founded on a sound business basis, the desire to profit by creating new wealth in the world, thus opening larger markets for the products of American industry." Dr. Hsieh, in presenting the advantages of China, never spoke as a suppliant for charity, his proposition as to trade conditions showed that the east had plenty to offer in trade, and that it would profit the United States, and especially the mill cities and machinery manufacturing localities in New England to bring forth the old proposition of barter, for which they used to be famous and go into the east if they wished to open up business possibilities that would be of great advantage to them and would also benefit the countries of the east, especially China. "But," he continued, "if the motive force were that of making markets alone, success could not be achieved. The incentive must be tempered with a purpose to serve by making two blades of grass grow where only one grew before and by an appreciation of the fact that that which will best serve the peoples across the sea of tomorrow will most benefit America. In the lands bordering the sea of tomorrow lie tremendous opportunities for helpful services as well as huge profits. The call is for the best in America. Men with vision, courage, and iron in their blood, dominated by a will to do, must come to the front and play a strong, masterful hand in the commerce of the Pacific and the development of Asia. To do less would prove them falling short of the New England spirit of the pioneer."

Resources of China
"The greatest storehouse of unused resources and potential wealth is in the countries bordering on the Pacific. The greatest of all is China, occupying one-seventh of all the land area of the globe, one-third of which is occupied by slightly over four million people, and the other two-thirds of which is occupied by only 30 million people and is practically undeveloped."

In connection with China, Dr. Hsieh outlined the tremendous resources of the country in agriculture, minerals, and labor, and also told of her great rivers, navigable way up into the interior of the country, and of the great market she offers to the country that is willing to become familiar with her, that will have the patience to break down any prejudice which it meets, and that will not try to gain her trade by practices somewhat after the style used by the early settlers in this country who bought tremendous tracts of land for a few trinkets and pieces of whiskey. The country which will get the big trade of China, the country that will be the greatest friend and ally, will be that country which will be willing to put into China something for everything she takes out."

The Far East Trade
Continuing Dr. Hsieh said, "The foreign trade of the countries of the Far East today totals about $5,500,000,000 a year. With adequate transportation facilities and material resource development assistance rendered to the Orient, the foreign trade will be increased to about 12 billion within a comparatively short time, and America's share in this new commerce will be directly proportionate to the extent of her investments and participation across the sea of tomorrow."

Dr. Hsieh then gave a thorough discussion of the conditions in China today, discounting much of the reported fighting and the seriousness of the actions of the bandits and claimed that there is no real trouble in the interior of China. One thing which he claimed was greatly in her favor was the fact that she has no religious differences, in religion she is one, and this binds her more closely together than any other thing could.

"The economic world," he predicted, "is to be a world power for co-operative peace domination. The plundering wars and it necessary to destroy, or to have destroyed, by the defenders, ten billion dollars' worth of wealth for every billion that they are able to take and carry off. It is easily seen that it is cheaper to dominate through economic peaceful domination than by means of out-beating the beast."

"And the races of mankind have not yet discovered that they get more by work than they can possibly get by taking it from others, that in every effort, either of an individual or of a nation, or of a people, to get little of something that their neighbors possess, they will find themselves compelled to destroy much. Disarmament and the problems of the Far East cannot and will not be solved by a discussion of the rights of races to the territory in which they have lived for thousands of years or of the ethics or lack of ethics of international aggression and plunder, but by the economic demonstration that war for plunder does not pay."

In conclusion he said: "The only protection lies in one of two things. The education of those susceptible of education to the economic fact that they will have greater wealth and escape degeneracy and death by becoming producers instead of attempting to live by plunder; or, another disarmament conference of the Orient to be arranged with leadership of Uncle Sam for the abolishing of the causes of would-be war in Manchuria."
